The above figures include some 200-300 term employees hired to cater to peak requirement during summer concentration. In regard to the questions concerning retired and ex-service personnel this information is not readily available and would entail manually checking several thousand personnel files for which the department does not have the necessary resources. Furthermore the data if found would be unreliable since only those people requiring a security clearance fill out a personal history form detailing all previous employment, whereas other personnel hired may or may not volunteer information of previous military service.

MEDICAL RESEARCH GRANTS

Question No. 2,307—Mr. Patterson:

ALLOTTED DAY, S.O. 58—CONDEMNATION OF GOVERNMENT ECONOMIC POLICIES

Hon. Sinclair Stevens (York-Peel) moved:

That this House condemns the government's barren economic policies, which are destroying the stability, productivity and competitiveness of the Canadian economy; reminds the honourable member for Cape Breton Highlands—Canso that he is now Minister of Finance and not Secretary of State for External Affairs; asks the minister to see at first hand the misery caused by his abdication of economic leadership by travelling around Canada instead of around the world; and, urges him to then introduce a budget with corrective measures before July 1, 1981, or resign.

He said: Madam Speaker, in speaking on my motion I feel that perhaps it is getting more and more urgent that we in this House start accepting some of the true facts and realities that
