 thence May 1764.

1764 they sail'd Eastward, visiting all parts as they went along, till they came to the Green Islands, where they took Monsieur Lafebure, and his two Sons with a Canada Indian, whom they examined apart: The Father at first seem'd Surly and Crooked, and the young Men were much of the like Temper, but being told what they must trust unto in case they did not confess, were afterwards Submissive, and promis'd to Pilot them where ever they were directed. Upon this the Transports and Whaleboats were ordered to be in a readiness, and every Man to have a weeks Provision; From hence they paddled to Penobscot, and with the assistance of one D'Young, whom they bro't out from Goal on purpose for a Pilot, kill'd and took a considerable number both of French and Indians, among whom was St. Casten's Daughter. From thence they went to Passamaqua- da, and Mount Desert, where they met the three Ships of War according to Appointment. Their Custom was to rest in the Day, and row in the Night; and never to fire at an Indian if they could reach him with a Hatchet, for fear of alarming them. Here they seiz'd the Old Latriell and his Family, after that Mounsier Gurden, and Sharkee, who a little before came with a Comission from Canada to form an Expedition against the English.
 No sooner had our Forces arrived here, but Orders were sent them from Boston, forthwith to Sail to Port-Royall, expecting some store Ships from France, which was welcome News for Officers & Soldiers. But they miss'd of their Expectations: However the Ships stood off the Harbour while the Land Forces went to Menn, where a Coun-
