

CHAPTER VIII.

LUNACY IN LOWER CANADA.—THE ASYLUM AT BEAUFORT.

	PAGE.
Lunatics Originally Confined in Religious Houses—Their Condition and Treatment—Sir C. Metcalfe's Philanthropic Exertions in their Behalf—First Receptions of Insane Persons at Beaufort Asylum—Pleasurable Emotions Created in their Minds by the Change of Scene and Discipline—Description of the New Building and the Grounds—Patients and their Occupations—Rationale of Treatment Adopted—Library and News Room—Effects of Religious, Æsthetic, and Social Observances—Singular Examples of Mental Aberration—The Beaufort Type of Insanity	129

CHAPTER IX.

MONTREAL.

Situation and Extent of the City—The "Mountain"—Judicial Divisions of the Province—Foundation of Montreal—Position of an Early Governor—The Coureurs de Bois —Social and Commercial Progress—Railroads and Canals—Transformations—The Corporation—Assessed Property—Conspicuous Public Edifices—Eyesores—Scotch Settlers—Nelson's Monument—The Volunteer Movement—Allegiance of the People—The Flower of the Army—Prince of Wales' Fishing Club—Editorial Amenities—Evils of Garrison Life—Scene on the Champ de Mars—Military Insubordination	156
---	-----

CHAPTER X.

INDUSTRIAL RESOURCES AND SOCIAL CONDITION
OF THE "ISLAND CITY."

Mr. Anthony Trollope's Strictures—The Victoria Iron Works—Nails and Nailers—Rolling Mills—Scientific Process of Puddling—The Royal, City, and Canal Flour Mills—Economization of Labour—The Canada Marine Works—Vicissitudes of the Confederate Privateer, Sumpter —The Sugar Refinery—Advantages of the Lachine Canal—The Montreal Ocean Steam Ship Company—The Geological Museum, and Sir William Logan—Educational Institutes—Condition of Criminality	178
--	-----

AGE.

52

88

101

118