Mr. Husband and Mrs. Wife

ID you ever stop to think how much you have to pay to keep up appearances? Did you ever stop to think that two rooms are plenty for two people? And when you take three or four or five rooms, you are simply taking them in order to show your friends that you can afford to.

You know if you can't be happy in two rooms you can't be happy in twenty. You may have more pride. Twenty rooms may bring more vanity, but not more happiness. Happiness doesn't hang on the walls. It isn't to be found in the rugs orcurtains. You can't get it out of mahogany doors. You've got to get it out of yourselves. Happiness grows on the inside.

Now in these Room Ads every day there are just scores of places for a man and wife—places that are plenty big enough to live in, and plenty big enough for happiness if you've got happiness inside of you.

If you'll take some of these rooms, you can begin gaving money; you can begin storing up a litle nest egg; you can begin becoming independent of the whole world. If you have real friends they'll come to you, and best of all you'll find out who your real friends are. Try it. Read over these Room Ads in this paper today. Check the locations and fit your conditions, and go out today or this evening and look over some of these places. You may find just what you want at one-fifth what you are pay-

And mention this paper please wherever you go. That is the refurn you will give to us for the suggestion we have given to you.
