WANTS CITY TO LEND MONEY TO BUILDERS.

That the city's sinking fund be used to relieve builders who need loans to carry on their work is the suggestion of Geo. Cassels. He believes that it the city would loan the money at the regular rates of interest, it would help the builders materially, as some of them are now paying very high rates for building loans, town, numbering between 200 and 300 men, commanded by Major J. Wayling of Toronto, and led by the Oddfellows' Band. Mobilization took place at the north end of the town, and the guards marched in companies via Huron and Main streets, to the town hall where divine service was conducted at 3 p.m. by Rev. Capt. McGonigle, assisted by Rev. H. F. Thomas and Rev. A. P. Addison. The hall was filled to overflowing, and many citizens could not get standing room.

The service was the regular military form of service authorized by the department of militia, and the Rev. Capt. McGonigle preached an appropriate sermon.

McGonigle preached an appropriate sermon.

The Newmarket company has only been in existence since Dec. 1. and the hearing of the men reflected great credit on Major Wayling, his instructors, who are all local men, and members of the company. The next few weeks will be devoted to rifle drill and practice, and should the guard develop as rapidly and as efficiently in this branch of the service as in manoeuvres they will be in a position to give a good account of themselves if called on. It is generally felt here that the authorities of the County of York and the Dominion. Government should take some steps to assist in the equipment of home guards who can pass a satisfactory military inspection. This would be an encouragement to the men, who freely spend their time and offer their services for the defence of the lountry.
