

Secs. 13, 19 and 81 of the Liquor License Ordinance, provide that licenses may be issued to a co-partnership, and that every license for the sale of liquor shall be held to be a license to the person therein named, and for the premises therein mentioned, and shall remain valid so long as such person continues to be an occupant of such premises, and the true owner of the business; and no person shall sell any liquor without first having obtained a license.

Held, 1. Following Browne v. Moore, 32 S.C.R. 93, that where by law sales of liquor without license are prohibited, recovery for such sales cannot be enforced, and that therefore recovery on the bill of exchange in so far as the consideration is for sales of liquor, cannot be supported or enforced, but the prohibition will not extend beyond liquor sold, and the other sales included in the bill of exchange and the open account, not liquors are enforceable.

2. The contract between the plaintiffs and defendants, and several other creditors of defendants, and Dundas, was entered into by the plaintiffs by misrepresentation of a material fact. The plaintiffs having, on discovering this and before receiving any benefit, repudiated the same, the agreement must be rescinded. Judgment for plaintiffs for $5010.

L. C. Johnston, for plaintiffs. H. G. W. Wilson, for defendants.

COUNTY OF YORK LAW ASSOCIATION.

At the annual meeting of this Association held in their new rooms at the City Hall, Toronto, the Board of Trustees presented their annual report for the past year. There are now 303 members belonging to the Association. Special reference was made to the death of the Hon. R. M. Wells, K.C., one of the incorporators of the Association, and Mr. A. J. Boyd, who died while on active service in South Africa. The attention of the members was called to the urgent need for an increase in the salaries of the Judges. The subject of unlicensed conveyancers was also referred to and the report of the Legislation Committee to the effect that the licensing of conveyancers as a separate class would be unwise and likely to lead to further encroachments upon the profession. The reduction of fees for the examination for discovery was approved; as also some scheme whereby the Ontario and Dominion Statutes might be supplied free to the profession or at a reduced price. The library now contains 4,685 volumes, 183 being added in 1902. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. B. Clarke, K.C.; Vice-President, Hamilton Cassels, K.C.; Curator, Angus MacMurchy; Secretary, Shirley Denison. Board of Trustees, D. E. Thomson, K.C., Wm. Davidson, Ernest Gunther, R. J. MacLennan, W. E. Middleton, D. W. Saunders, and C. S. MacInnes.
