

P. R. B. A. C. E.

The voyage that have been undertaken by the order of his present majesty, to explore the South-sea and to mark those parts which are lying open to the navigation of the East India Company, has been the subject of much curiosity and expectation. The success of it will be a great advantage to the nation, and will be a great satisfaction to the public.

The voyage that have been undertaken by the order of his present majesty, to explore the South-sea and to mark those parts which are lying open to the navigation of the East India Company, has been the subject of much curiosity and expectation. The success of it will be a great advantage to the nation, and will be a great satisfaction to the public.