

SMERDIS—The Magian ; The Usurper.

SOCRATES—The most celebrated Philosopher of Antiquity.

SOLOMON—The Wisest Man.

SOLOMON—The Athenian Lawgiver.

ST. CYPRIAN—Brightest Ornament of the African Church.

STEPHEN—The 1st Martyr.

ST. FRANCISCO—The Golden Gate.

STOCKHOLM—The Venice of the North.

STUART, Sir John—Hero of the Plains of Maida.

SYLLA COR—Felix or the Fortunate.

TELL, WM.—The Wallace of Switzerland.

THEBES, in Greece—Heptapylos from its 7 Gates.

THEBES, in Egypt—Diospolis, or City of Jupiter; Hecatompnylos from its 100 Gates.

THOMAS A. BECKET—St. Thomas of Canterbury.

THEODOSIUS, Greek Emperor—The Great ; Augustus, The Invincible.

THEOPHILUS, (Greek History)—The Unfortunate.

THERMOPYLÆ—The Key of Greece.

THIBET—the Switzerland of Asia.

TIBERIAS III. Greek Emperor—Aspimar.

TIMES, Newspaper of London—the Thunderer.

TIMON, of Athens—Misanthrope.

TITUS—the Delight of Mankind.

TURBOT, the—The pheasant of the waters.

TURLOUGH II. (O'Connor) A.D. 1130 (Ireland)—the Great.

TYRE—the sister of Sielon.

UGAINE MOR, (Ireland) B. C. 451—the Great.

ULPHILAS—the Apostle of the Goths.

VALDIMIR I. Duke, of Kiov (Russia)—the Great.

VALDIMIR II. do—the Victorious.

VALERIAN, the Roman Emperor—Sapor's Foot stool, from allowing that king to place one foot on his back whilst mounting his horse.

VANDALS—the Wanderers.

VANCOUVERS ISLE—Gibraltar of the Fuca Straits.

VENICE—Queen of the Adriatic ; Swan of the Ditto.

VIRGIL—Prince of the Latin Poets.

VISCOUNT, St. Vincent (1858)—Father of the House of Peers.

VOLKOF, of the Russian Theatre—the Garrick of Russia.

VORTIGERN—Pendragon or Head King.

WALDEMAR, King of Denmark—the Great.

WALDEMAR do, do—the Victor.

WALLACE, WM.—the Hero of Scotland.

WALTER—the Penniless.

WAT—the Tiler or Tyler.