- VI. THE AMERICAN CITIZEN'S MANUAL. Part II.—The Functions of Government, considered with special reference to taxation and expenditure, the regulation of commerce and industry, provision for the poor and insane, the management of the public lands, etc. Octavo, cloth. $1.00

A work planned to afford in compact form a comprehensive summary of the nature of the organization of the government of the United States, national, State, and local, and of the duties, privileges, and responsibilities of American citizens.

- VII. SPOILING THE EGYPTIANS. A Tale of Shame. Told from the British Blue-Books. By J. SEYMOUR KEAY. Octavo, paper, 50 cents; cloth. 75

A narrative by a well-informed Englishman, jealous for the honor of his country, of peculiar interest and power, throwing light upon the causes which have produced the present exceptional and complicated state of affairs in Egypt, and making clear some of the grounds for the bitter hatred of Europeans which found fatal expression in the massacres of Alexandria. The story as given, and each statement of which is verified by reference to the official documents, constitutes one of the most fearful arraigments ever made against a Christian nation.
