

says South Carolina insists on slave trade, 446; asks for slave trade till 1808, 467; moves fugitive slaves be delivered up, 481; on committee on rules, 18; moves committee to superintend minutes, 21; introduces draft of government, 26; asks if State governments are to be abolished, 27; upholds powers of convention, 109; speech, 155; moves commitment of qualifications for office, 328; opposes disqualifications of debtors, 331; thinks capital may be in large town, 332; thinks new naturalization laws necessary, 367; favors appointment of Treasurer by joint ballot, 415; favors power to suppress rebellion without application of State legislature, 417; favors assumption of State debts, 421; proposes clause for liberty of the press, 427, 565; moves power to establish offices, 430; moves prohibition of acceptance of presents from foreign governments, 455; thinks State executives ought to be appointed by general government, 457; moves to establish laws of bankruptcies, 488; moves regulation of commerce, foreign and domestic, by two-thirds vote, 483; favors power to pass navigation acts, 483; moves religious tests be forbidden, 495; thinks constitution need not have approval of Congress, 499; would exclude Senate from appointing power, 529; moves an address to people, 544; proposes universality, 564; opposes provision against army, 565; favors occasional publication of expenditures, 567; opposes second convention, 576; plan of, presented to convention, May 29, 1787; 596; letters from, to John Quincy Adams, relating to the Pinckney plan, 598; text of plan submitted by, to John Quincy Adams, 600; note of James Madison, on plan of, 606.

Pinckney, Charles Cotesworth, S. C., attends, 17; thinks elections to national legislature by the people impracticable, 66; opposes ineligibility of members of first branch of legislature, 151; proposes Senate have no salary, 171; thinks Senate should be paid by States, 173; proposes compromise on vote in Senate, 201; favors reduction of representation of New Hampshire, 226; wishes increase in representation of southern States, 227; moves increase in representation of Georgia, 228; moves increase in representation of South Carolina, 228, 358; moves ten years' citizenship for members of Senate, 370; thinks salaries of judges may be changed, 474; thinks provision for jury trials unnecessary, 573; thinks Senate may originate money bills, 98; thinks originating money bills in first branch no concession, 219; insists blacks should count equally with whites, 233; insists on security for slaves, 311; admits slave trade is price of navigation laws, 468; wishes provision in favor of property in slaves, 481; doubts powers of convention, 28; moves to consider more effective government, 28; favors retention of State power, 143; favors taxation by representation, 241; thinks rule of wealth should be fixed, 243; favors census in six years, 245; opposes adjournment, 261; moves qualifications for office, 328; on grand committee on assumption of State debts, 423; favors army, 424; favors power over militia, 425, 453; on committee on navigation acts, 448; approves forbidding religious test, 495; announces support of constitution, 582.

Pleckney plan, referred, 27; outline, 26 n.; referred to committee of detail, 318, 337.

Piracies and felonies, law and punishment debated, 415; punishment struck out, 416, 563; agreed to, 416, 417; power to define, 416.

Ports of entry, State consent to, proposed, 470; regulation of, 501.

Post offices, power agreed to, 413.

Prayers in convention proposed, 181.

Preamble agreed to, 347.

Presents from foreign governments prohibited, 455.

Privileges, equal, for citizens of States, clause agreed to, 481.

Property qualification for office, agreed to, 330.

Public acts of one State valid in another, clause agreed to, 504.

Public debt, power to regulate, 421.

Quorum, less than a majority proposed, 376; number, rejected, 378; considered, 407; of Senate, two-thirds rejected, 534.

Randolph, Edmund, Va., attends, 17; opening speech, 22; opposes single executive, 38, 48; opposed to execu-