The firm of Liggett's, Limited, the largest drug retailers in America, will open their doors to the public this morning at 106 Yonge-street. The opening of this important business points to the fact that the mercantile life of Toronto is progressing at a rapid pace. The new firm, altho they have three hundred agencies in Canada, will open the first Canadian store under their management to-morrow. They are the manufacturers of the well-known Bexall remedies, and all the stock for their new store will be supplied from a medicine plant at the corner of Lake and Bay-streets, which they establish-their wares to-day. The Toronto store of Liggett's Lim-itéd, is well situated in the hub of the downtown district, and is fully modern in every sense. It is divided into several departments, all using the new Lamson cash system. The only iceless soda fountain in Toronto has been installed in the confectionery de-partment. A novel feature of Toronpartment. A novel feature of Toron-to's newest drug store will be the establishment of a small emergency hos-pital, where the injured may be attended to. There has been a great need of a well-equipped drug store between King and Queen-streets on Yonge-street, for accidents have become of late numerous in that part of the city. The management have so appointed their store that this necessary feature is given unsual prominence.

The manager stated yesterday that he had endeavored to provide an emergency hospital on a small scale. "Every instrument and article of medicine necessary," he said, "in at-tending injuries are arranged on these shalver" pointing to the court economic shelves," pointing to the sputh corner of the store, just inside the entrance, "and an operating table will also be kept here."
