A MASS MEETING TRAP WAS SET
Holders of Whole Afloat and Accomplishment Without Bloodshed is Remarkable.

Tampa, Fla., Aug. 7.—The strike attention to-night is one of bewilderment on the part of the strikers and immovable determination on the part of the citizens. No word has been received from or about the Resistance leaders, who were reported last night, and the strikers sworn to secrecy, also they admit that the men will never return to Tampa. The exact number of the men deported is not yet known, but every prominent leader of the strike is missing. It is said that others are marked, and that deportation may take place at any moment.

WARDROBE OF A GOULD.
Dainty Linen for the Tiny Heir—
New York, Aug. 7.—A wardrobe fit for a prince has been provided for little Edward Klondike Gould, who was born on board of Mr. George J. Gould's yacht, Sabarito. Nothing is gorgeous or over-trimmed, but all is made of the finest fabrics, hand-wrought, in delicate designs, and everything in abundance. Everything is of pure white. There are dresses of sheer muslin by the score, some lined with white silk for cooler days. One frock is made of linen cambric, another is of lawn, drawn thru a ring, the front embroidered in white blossoms, vines and leaves, with lace inserted alternately. Another is of lace and network. Her christening gown is the one worn by her brother, George Jay Gould, Jr. It is of white satin, bordered with old Valenciennes lace, as fine as cobweb, over the skirt and waist, and forming little tufted sleeves that are caught up with white ribbon. The cloak is also of white satin, lined with silk, with a large cape collar lace, and the cap made of Valenciennes lace and embroidery, and lined with white silk.
