IT'S LONDON'S PENNANT. No more during the year 1899 will citizens witness a Canadian League many expected it would be, after the Hamilton meeting of Monday last. Dispatches had been sent out, and appeared in some of the papers on Saturday afternoon that the games on Saturday would be the last. The local management knew the intention, and although not announced, the disbandment had become general news. The game on Saturday was of a reckiess sort, and the spectators present Maple Leafs started out with their usual determination to win, but before three innings had been played they lapsed into half-heartedness, and merely played to finish out the game. Away on the horizon, emblazoned by the setting sun, were the words, "Home, Sweet Home," and before many days pass the Guelph players will be safely enscenced in their homes awaiting the spring of 1900, when they will send out their stories of what deeds of prowess they did against the clubs in the Canadian League, but could not defeat the three times champion Londons, on the London grounds, once during

Carey and Wagner were the only players who were successful in hitting Seiver's shoots. Carey's three-base hit forty-two victories. Phenomenal! Some was on a ball that bounded away from Mohler and Reed, and should have been good for one base only.

The ninth inning was also amusing. With two out, Manager Black faced Cooper. "Run for the 'bus," was Fransix o'clock train. Francis remained bewhile the other players rushed from the ground. Black swiped viclously, and to everyone's surprise, placed a safe one in left field. Francis ended the game by going out to Jones.

The Londons managed to get thirteen clean hits, two The fifth inning was particularly heavy tion. to stretch his long drive to left into another triple. Wagner played a remarkable game. Three times he returned the ball to bases and retired runners, while his catches were all difficult ones.

WIND-UP AT HAMILTON. Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 14.—The con-cluding game of the short-ended Canadian League season here Saturday was a burlesque. Recent sales of men had reduced the Hamilton team to eight men, and Jennings, a relic of the semi-professional crop of 1878, played center field, while Pitcher McCann was on first base, and Pitcher Bradford in right field. Hagerman was hammered unmercifully, and in the ninth, he did not try to pitch. Score: WOODSTOCK.

Away backin'77 and '78 London gained the right to recognition in the baseball world by playing some of the hardest-fought and longest games of ball on record. Several of the leading players in the country made their reputations in London. Take, for instance, Fred Goldsmith, Powers, Hornung, Barnes and Doescher. During one year, two of the medals given by the New York Clipper to the best players in each position were won by Does-

He promoted harmony, friendship and esteem among his team, who worked faithfully at his command. No petty jealousies have existed, and his efforts have been well rewarded. > The season was closed at the request of Hamilton, backed by Guelph. The Advertiser on Friday stated that the object of the Hamilton meeting was to get permission from President Young to close the season early. Nick Young has evidently sanctioned the request, and Hamilton is jubilant. The Hamilton officials have been urging this disbandment for some weeks past. Because their team have been tail-enders nearly all season, they have been "quitters." Hamilton had been in the lead their shouts of disapproval of this action would have been long and loud.

1900 has been paid. Each club in the league is required to pay the salaries of all the players it wants to reserve up to the date mentioned above.

Of the four clubs London was the only one which wanted to continue playing. The principal object of the other three was to get protection for next year, and this has been done.

The season has not been a good one.

A mistake was made at the outset

A mistake was made at the outset in inducing Stratford to enter, and in allowing the club to go in without putting up any guarantee deposit. The failure of the St. Thomas club to meet its financial obligations was the next trouble, and the changes necessary gave the league an unstable reputation and the public lost confidence in it. That meant small attendance and loss, and an early wind-up was the wisest thing under the circumstances.

London is to be congratulated on the work of its team this year. It has practically been first all the time, and has made a wonderful record in its home games. It has well earned the championship. The management of Pete Lohman, under the veteran Hamilton was always near the top, but a killing slump then set in. Guelph has had a hard pull for some weeks, but Woodstock is now more enthusiastic than ever. There is talk of a club under new management in St. Thomas

At the close of Saturday's game the dons gathered in their dressingrooms and were given instructions by Manager Lohman regarding the intention of the management for the balance of the season. He stated that the club would be kept together until Sept. 15, and they could not look upon the dis-bandment as a relaxation of rules and regulations. They were still liable to fine and suspension, and he expected every member of the club to continue to carry out his wishes, as they had during the entire season. something creditable to the team and to Manager Lohman to state that not one cent of fines has been imposed upon the team by the local management.

EASTERN TEAM PLAYS GOOD BALL.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 14.-President P. T. Powers, of the Eastern League, was in town Saturday, and saw the game between Montreal and the local team. He expressed himself as highly satisfied with the work of the locals and added that every team in the Eastern League was playing great ball. When asked as to the rumor that his visit to this city was to investigate the alleged rowdyism of some of the Rochester players, Mr. Powers said that such was not the object of his visit. In reference to the question about the Toronto game, Mr. Powers said that he had telegraphed the Canadian management that the extra game must not be played, and if anyone was to be penalized for the alleged offense it would be the Toronto team. He thought that the game would be eventually counted for Rochester in the next series to be played with the Canadian team, could make no definite statement until after a meeting of the league directors
