The French Strikers Appear To Be Weakening.

Madrid, Oct. 12 .- The rumors which have been published here as to the attitude of the United States peace commissioners are described as having caused a painful impression, especially the reported decision of the American commissioners not to recognize the Cuban and Porto Rican debts.

New York, Oct. 12.-A dispatch to the New York Journal and Advertiser from Rome says: The Spanish ambassador informs the New York Journal's representative that Spain will demand the intervention of the great powers if the United States insists on the annexation of the entire Philippines. A Madrid dispatch to the Herald says the latest reports from Senor Montero Rios are that he is surprised at the demands of the American commission, which means that the Americans have asked for the whole of the Philippines. Only under protest will anything be conceded, but Spain seeks at the utmost to retain the Visayas | month's furlough. and Mindanao.

STRIKE IN PARIS. Paris, Oct. 12.-The committee of against taking part in the strike. This practical disagreement has dissatisfied the strikers, many of whom are now disposed to resume work. A number of building works were reopened this morning.

Three thousands of the strikers resumed work yesterday.

There is much discontent over the indifference of the leaders toward the strikers. The former do not furnish strike pay to the men, but only give them soup tickets.

The troops are not in evidence on the streets today, although 23,000 are still under arms, expressly to protect the men willing to work.

THE G. T. R.-REPORT DENIED. The Grand Trunk management deny the rumor that the road between Richmond and Levis is to be taken over by the Boston and Maine Railway.

ANDREW'S SERVICE OF PRAISE.

The bad weather last night did not prevent St. Andrew's Church from being filled, even crowded. It was the second service of praise given this THE INDIAN year by the choir of the church. The choir was assisted by superior local riving in Honolulu, only to meet with | talent and by Mrs. Nma Gray-Dawson, soprano soloist, Westminster Presbyterian Church, Detroit, and Mr. Ernest T. Martin, tenor soloist, Hamilton, The visitors distinguished themselves and created an impression which assures them favorable welcome in future. The local soloists were, Mr. J. W. McIn-Miss Margaret Cowan, Miss Edith Hartson and Mr. Robert Morrison, all of whom were in excellent voice and fulfilled the expectations of their friends. The choruses by the choir were rendered admirably under, Mr. Charles E. Wheeler's direction. Mr. Wheeler also gave four organ selections with his well-known skill, and added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. During the intermission Rev. Robert Johnston, the pastor, delivered a short address, and after the concert Mr. and Mrs. Johnston entertained the choir and ushers at the manse.

The Caradoc fall show was pretty early morning it rained softly, as Then, lest anybody might be bold enough to start for Mount Brydges, in spite of the steady drizzle, it began to rain in gusts and torrents, driving down diagonally at an angle of 45 degrees, so as to get in under umbrellas and lap robes. And it kept at that sort of thing till nearly four o'clock in the afternoon. There were few visitors, and the exhibits made only a handful. It was a severe disappaintment to the directors, because, though the Caradoc show has been waning of late years, the number of entries received up till the night before the fair indicated that this would be the biggest fair on record for Caradoc township. The ring events resulted as follows: Free for all: Iron Duke 1, Vera 2, Harry Wilkes 3.

First Presbyterian Church Literary Society Selects Officers for the Year.

The Literary Society of the First Presbyterian Church met in the lecture room on Monday night and elected officers for the ensuing season. The selection was as follows: Honorary president, Rev. W. J. Clark; president, H. M. Lay; vice-president, W. C. Ferguson; secretary, J. C. Riach; treasurer, Miss Kate Reid. Literary, musical and reception committees were also selected. The evening was spent in a social way, there being no formal programme. Miss Bertha Hodge sang a solo while the balloting was taking place, and Mr. Ferguson returned thanks to the retiring president, Mr. W. Reid, for his services during the past year. The next meeting takes place on Oct. 24. There was a large attendance, and the members all manifested deep interest, which promises well for the society's work during the winter months.

"LADY" BANK ROBBER

Was Chased for Fifty Miles by Horsemen Before She Was Caught.

Perry, Oct. 12.—Dora Cox, a woman bank robber, horse and cattle thief and whisky seller to the Indians, is in jail for the tenth time. Dora is said to be a hypnotist, and thus escapes jail. This time the officers chased her on horseback 50 miles before they caught her. Dora is charged with assisting the Dalton gang of bandits in robbing banks. In the fall of 1893 four persons, all in men's clothing, robbed the Bank of Commerce of Pawnee, and it is said that Dora Cox, Bill Doolin, Dynamite Dick and Bitter Creek, members of the Daltons, did the work. The cashier, C. L. Berry, who has since been sent to the penitentiary for looting his bank, was tied on Dora's horse behind her and carried for miles out of town to shield the robbers from bullets. Dora is a good shot and a good rider,
