embarkation of troops commenced a mented at Halifax.

Halifax, Jan. 17.—"There is no Bobshevism among the Canadian army," declared an officer who has had exceptional opportunities of studying the Dominion overseas treops. "Discipline today is as good as it was early in November previous to the signing of the armistice. I was in Mons on November 11, and the news which meant, as everyone realized, the end of the war, was received in a spirit of humble thankfulness. There was no looting in Mons on the day the armistice was signed, no drunkenness, and very little exuberance which might naturally have been expected. Of course, they are anxious to get home as quickly as pos-

SPARTACAN LEADERS FALL VICTIMS TO BASEST PASSIONS THEY AROUSED

Berlin, Jan. 16.—(By the Associated Press).—Virtually the entire Berlin press today regards the fate of Dr. Liebknecht and Rosa Luxembourg, the Spartacan leaders, as having "something of divine justice in it," as the Tages Zeitung phrases it. Of Dr. Liebknecht, the Lokal Anzeiger says: "He brought his fate upon himself." Continuing its comment, the newspaper says: "The murder of Rosa Luxembourg shows how tremendous must have been the indignation which seized the people of Berlin as the result of the criminal activities of the Spartacans. Such summary judgments have ordinarily been foreign to the German manner of thinking."

The Conservative newspapers, however, explain his career as a terrible example of the Stattler as a terrible example of th Berlin, Jan. 16 .- (By the Associated | Die Frieheit alone tries to lay the cans. Such summary Judgments have ordinarily been foreign to the German manner of thinking."

"The press in general deplores the lynching of Rosa Luxembourg, but declares she fell victim to the basest passions which she herself had awakened.

The Conservative newspapers, however, explain his career as a terrible example of the Socialist infection which made the ground fertile for Bolshevism, while the Tageblatt considers him to have been a megliomaniac.
