Fine Weather, Good Track and Large Crowd on Washington J. C.'s Third Day.

WASHINGTON, March 25,-Fairly good sport characterized the third day of the Washington Jockey Club's spring meeting at Bennings. The weather was pleasant the track good and the crowd the largest thus far of the meeting. Two favorites, affair at 1 mile 40 yards. On his good race of Monday, Annhus, Ornite, altho Wil-E. Madden, was made favorite, altho Wil-SECOND RACE—Novgorod, Prudent, in some books, his price being shorter than that of Animus. A heavy play was made on Delphie, but she did not figure in the result. Reidmore was in the lead until the turn was reached, when Lally closed. Animus came fast on the turn, and as the horses straightened out in the stretch he gained a slight lead. Shaw timed his ride admirably, and in the last of the furlong drew away and won handily, with Reidmore second and Lally third. The steeplechase, at two miles, proved an interesting event. Percentage ers, and coupled with his stable com to 2 favorite. He led until the last jump, where Fin MacCool passed him, but only for an instant. The favorites ea ily took command in the stretch, and MacCool also was overhauled by Penarris. Under a drive the horses finished in that order, the stable running one-two. In the first race Prowler was made a hot favorite. As the horses were going to the pole, the favorite ran away 5 furlongs and did not show in the race, Nanna winning easily. Summary:
