

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

TO SLEEP.

A flock of sheep that leisurely pass by. One after one, the sound of rain and bees humming; the fall of rivers, winds and seas, smooth fields, white sheets of water and pure sky; those thoughts of all by turns, and yet do not sleep, and soon the small birds' melodious must heard, first uttered from my orchard trees; and the first cuckoo's melancholy cry, when thus last night and two nights more, I lay and could not win these sleep by any stealth; do not let me wear to-night away; Without these what is all the morning's wealth? Come, blessed barrier between day and day; dear mother of fresh thoughts and joyous health.

"The Home"

The first open meeting of the Household Economics Association was held at the Normal School yesterday afternoon. Mrs. A. E. Heustis, president, introduced C. C. James, deputy-minister of agriculture, who gave an address on "The Home." Mrs. James called attention to the importance given to such topics as immigration, transportation and the tariff, which with trade and commerce appeared to be the sole topics of the meeting. He considered that the members of the Household Economics Association had in public health, education, and the development of the home life of the people of Canada problems of deeper significance. The recent declaration of President Roosevelt that the health of the people was the greatest physical asset of the nation was equally true of Canada. Millions are expended by governments to prevent disease in plants, compared with trifling expenditures to protect the public from preventable diseases. The educational problem was very important, but unless a child has had right principles implanted in the home his scholastic training may prove a curse rather than a blessing to the community. Thus the national problems of Canada were to be traced to their origin in the home, and the analysis showed that the women were the real saviors of the future of the Dominion. Upon them rested the destiny of Canada.

The Nurses' Fair.

The entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Toronto Graduate Nurses in Massey Hall to-morrow, Friday and Saturday, is assuming very large proportions. The opening will take place at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, and everything will be in full swing each day from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. At 8 o'clock on Thursday evening the formal opening will take place. Lady Mornington, Clark, having kindly consented to be the guest of honor, promises to present a real and beautiful picture of Fairland. The ceiling and the galleries will be festooned with draped in the colors of all nations. There will be some 60 different flags employed. On Thursday evening the banding of the Queen's Own on Saturday, with the Queen's Own on Saturday, an orchestra will give continuous concert each afternoon. An especial feature is to be made of a comic vaudeville in which 100 or more cartoons and amusing paintings by well-known artists will be displayed.

In Society.

Teas will be given to-day by Mrs. Edward Cox, Miss Gladys Baldwin.

For Women Only

Some Suggestions About Health That Can Be Acted Upon With Enormous Benefit.

When a woman is continually unwell there must be a cause. Doctors say it is constitution, which disorganizes every function upon which health depends.

A woman knows little about medicine. But she quickly learns that injury instead of good follows the use of ordinary pills recommended for constipation.

Most pills irritate. But Dr. Hamilton's Pills act particularly for women and exactly suit the female organism; they act promptly, but do not cause burning pains or reaction.

Every girl and woman should use Dr. Hamilton's Pills occasionally. By so doing good health is assured. Peculiar disorders are rectified, and immediate cure follows for headache, bad temper, nervousness and lassitude.

To be well and keep well take Dr. Hamilton's Pills, best medicine made for the female sex, 25c per box or five boxes for $1.00 at all dealers, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

Toronto World's Beauty Patterns

A "Teddy" Bear Pattern.

No. 5712

Among the many toys designed each year, nothing has yet appeared that has so won the hearts of the children as the "Teddy" bear. It is so soft and "comfy" to hug and pet that it has almost displaced the much-loved doll. Even Little Goldilocks of story book fame would not run away from the cutie "teddy" bear shown in the illustration and would willingly share her porridge with him. When purchased in the shops Master Brum is a very expensive little fellow, but by carefully following the directions given with the pattern it can easily be made at home. It is usually made of bear cloth, and may be filled with sawdust, bran, cotton or excelsior. The soles of the feet and inside of the hands may be made of cambric or muslin, and the nose, mouth and eyes may be simulated by taking over a piece of old, worn, heavy black thread. A more realistic appearance is given the nose by dipping the end in melted sealing wax, either black or brown. The pattern comes in three sizes and for the medium size 1-2 yard of 44-inch material will be required. "Teddy" Bear No. 5712. Sizes for 12, 15 and 18 inches.

Be Sure and State Size Required when Ordering this Pattern.

Mrs. James K. Shuttleworth will receive at her new home, 1409 West King-street, on the second Thursday of each month.

A wedding of great interest to Barrie people took place here Saturday at Grace Church, when Nathaniel Dymont, second son of Simon Dymont of Barrie, was married to Miss M. Burton of Barrie.

A very quiet wedding took place in Hamilton, Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Marian K. Street of that city was united in marriage to Mr. Bernard K. Sandwell of Montreal. The ceremony which took place at the residence of Mr. Krum, grandfather of the bride, in the presence of the immediate relatives, was performed by Rev. I. Tovell, D.D. Mr. and Mrs. Sandwell left for Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans, Dallas, Texas, and other points in the southern states, and on their return will reside in Montreal.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Alfred B. Street of Albany, N.Y., formerly librarian of the New York State Legislature, and a well known minor poet of that city.

Mr. Sandwell, who is a son of Rev. G. H. Sandwell of London, Eng., and formerly pastor of Zion Congregational Church, Toronto, is a former head-boy of Upper Canada College, and an honor graduate of the University of Toronto. He was for some time on the editorial staff of The Toronto News, and is now a leader writer on The Montreal Herald.

Mrs. James McKenzie will receive on Thursday, Nov. 12, and afterwards on the first Thursday of the month, at 447 Gladstone-avenue.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Monday, Nov. 9, at 3 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons, Clarendon, Ont., by the Rev. J. A. Gray, minister of the Gospel. The bride, Miss Eva Minnie Gibbons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons, was married to Miss Eva Minnie Gibbons.

The bride's handsome wedding gown was made of Alice blue silk tulle. She carried a bouquet of lily of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Hannah Stephenson, sister of the bride, was dressed in pale green silk tulle. The bride wore a gold ring set with rubies, and the groomsmen gold cuff links. The groom was supported by Mr. Charles Gibbons of Clarendon. The presents were numerous and costly, among them being a handsome cheque from the bride's parents. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Stephenson, Mr. E. Stephenson, Miss Hannah and Nora Stephenson, of Pickering; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harris of Columbus, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson, Audley; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grant, Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Stephenson, Clarendon; Miss Maggie Morrison, Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Adam Spears, Atna; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Walford, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Worthing, Miss Elsie Gibbons, Toronto.

As this is the last day of the Art Fair, which is being held in the galleries of the Women's Art Association, 604 Jarvis-street, a large attendance is expected. There are still many beautiful articles for sale and other attractions in artistic booths, the art gallery, the brownies' fishing wheel, etc., having proved very popular. The fair will be continued during this afternoon. The association has made arrangements to have a booth at the Fair of All Nations in the Massey Music Hall the end of this week.

Mrs. Franklin Davidson, who is visiting friends in England, will not return until the spring.

The recital to be given Thursday at the Royal Alexandra offers a program of special musical merit, which will be rendered by Mr. Harry Girard. This noted baritone has appeared on numerous occasions in the concert halls of the continent in recital, as well as in comic and grand opera.

and grand opera, with marked distinction. Mr. Girard's career has been exceptionally illuminated. He began his musical career at the age of seven, and passed through the various ranks of chorist, organist, impresario, composer and baritone. These recitals are being given for the benefit of the Hospital for Sick Children and the Toronto Free Hospital for Consumptives, and will doubtless be the most prominent social features of the season.

Mme. Johanna Gadski with the Symphony Orchestra on December 8th, is arousing great interest, was scarcely more than a girl when brought to this country to sing before audiences to whom her name was practically unknown.

At Kroll's Theatre, in Berlin, Walter Brunsch heard her sing and was so impressed that he offered her an engagement with the Damosch-Ellis Opera Company.

Gadski made her New York debut in March, 1898, in the role of Elsa in Lohengrin, and she stepped into instant favor. In 1898 she became a member of the Grau company, receiving for her services a flat fee of $1000.

Offered from Heinrich Conrad, Gadski's offers became quite the most fashionable of the opera season, the prima donna's Aida and Brunhilde being especially popular. A difference with Mr. Conrad led Gadski to sever her connection with the opera company, and for three seasons she devoted herself exclusively to the concert stage.

She is now back at the Metropolitan, however, dividing her time equally between the concert and operatic fields.

Pringle v. Financial Post—F. J. Dunbar, for the defendants; E. C. Cattani, for plaintiff. Judgment (B). Motion to strike out certain paragraphs in statement of claim in action for libel. It is perhaps a matter of no importance whether the third paragraph of the claim is amended as defendants desire, or not. It may be that the plaintiff will accept the third paragraph, thinking it safer to do so, but having regard to the form of the notice and in the Oberlin case, if the plaintiff prefers to do so—as to the attack on paragraph 7, it is only necessary to say that as no facts are given in the plaintiff's statement, the motion is ready to be made. The motion is ready to be made. The motion is ready to be made.

Buchanan v. Bogue—F. Aylesworth, for plaintiff; J. G. Smith, for defendant. Judgment (B). Motion to change venue from Toronto to Peterborough. The plaintiff deliberately exercised his right of choice, and in face of the opposition of defendant he cannot now alter it, as no substantial evidence is advanced for so doing. Motion dismissed with costs to the defendant in the cause.
