It is the opinion in some quarters that something will drop on Friday right and make a noise like an ulti-matum at the mass meeting of the carpenters, if the younger members of the union are out in sufficient numbers to out-vote the elders.

That there has been a pronounced in the back!"

feeling in the ranks of the saw and hammer wielders for an increase of the minimum scale from 33 to 40 cents per hour has been evident for sometime and it is expected that the question of calling a strike, if necessary, to attain that figure will be discussed and settled at the mass meeting. A meeting of the executive tee was held last night at the Labor Temple, but no statements were given out at the close other than that the amalgamated society would hold a mass meeting on Friday night.
