Cold Weather Comes to Assistance of Market Bulls-Britain Buys Oats.

Chicago, Jan. 20 .- Corn ranged higher in price today, with buying mostly the result of cold weather and a falling off in the crop movement. There was an net. Oats finished %c to ic up. # IN DULL MARKET

Fresh Drop in Call Loan Rates Fails to Enliven Wall Street.

New York, Jan. 20.-Transactions on the stock exchange today were the smallest and in most other respects the least est and in most other respects the least significant of any full session for several weeks.

Not only was public interest again at low ebb, but even the professional element evinced no disposition to extend its recent varied commitments on the short side of the market. Surface indications, so far as they had any drift at all, pointed to a sold-out condition.

Developments of the day emoraced another drop in call or demand loans to lowest rates in several months and recurrent weakness in foreign exchange. The London quotation fell to within 1½ cents of its minimum and new low levels cents of its minimum and new low leve cents of its minimum and new low levels of depreciation were registered by Italian German and Austrian remittances.

The federal reserve board was in conference at Washington during the greater part of the market session, but adjourned, according to the statement of an official, without taking further measures to-curist credits.

Motors, oils, steels, utilities and food issues, more or less in the order named, featured the day's operations at extreme gains of one to five points. Sales amounted to 500,000 shares.

Bonds were inclined to yield, especially the Liberty group, and internationals were slightly lower. Total sales (par value) were $13,800,000.

TRADE TOPICS

Weather conditions during week interfered with travelers on their routes. Trade generally is active in all lines, retailers reporting brisk business.

In wholesale dry goods there is a big demand, with prices advanced in all lines. Scarcity of goods, with sufficient orders on hand, gives an optimistic tone to business. Tweeds, optimistic tone to business. Tweeds, serges, linens and silks are difficult

In wholesale groceries there is active distribution, with advances reported in rice, dried fruits and jams The sugar situation is not improved, and refined is quoted higher. Molasses is scarce and advanced in

In wholesale hardware there is increased activity. Nails, tacks and builders hardware are further ad-vanced in price. Retailers are placing orders for paints at present prices in anticipation of prices going higher. In wholesale boots and shoes there is an active demand for the spring trade, but jobbers do not expect further advances in prices, but incline to the belief that if there is a change t will be downward.

The leather market is unchanged. In wholesale provisions dressed hogs are fairly active, and fair business is reported in smoked and cured meats. The demand for lard is good at unchanged prices. The butter market is quiet, eggs and poultry steady and potatoes scarce at steady Retail trade is active. Remittances are good and city collections improved. The failure list is still light.

Montreal reports the resumption of hay exports to Great Britain, which has been dormant for some years.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS SHOW FAIR RECOVERIES

New York, Jan. 20 .- The general hat showed strength, and recoveries in many issues took place today on the curb. Apparently there was consider. able short-covering, especially in the oils. The industrials moved higher, while the metal shares were quiet. The coppers were in fair demand. Representative silver issues held steady.

General Asphalt closed with a nei

Highest Prices in Fifty Years Paid for White Metal Spells Opportunity for Investors

Wonderful Outlook for Silver Mines

There exists to-day the most acute shortage of silver in the history of the world. There has never been such a demand for coinage purposes-all the nations of the earth bidding against each other for supplies-while the industrial uses of the metal. are constantly increasing. The supply of silver to-day is millions of ounces behind the demand, the production is declining year by year.

Jack Munroe a Mine of Exceptional Merit

Favorably located in the heart of one of Ontario's most promising silver districts—Elk Lake, midway between Gowganda and Cobalt—JACK MUNROE MINE gives abundant promise of becoming a big producer of the white metal. Surface showings have been pronounced as sensationally rich, with occurrences of high-grade ore running thousands of ounces to the ton. The property was staked and the Company named after Jack Munroe, of Princess Pats fame, and the development work to be started immediately will be under experienced and able mining men. Utmost efficiency—scrupulous economy and absolute managerial integrity, combined with the
