Seven of the large saw mills in St. John are closed today and upwards of 1000 men are idle as a result of a demand for higher wages made by the mill employes...

Mr. Moore added that the state of the United States and English markets was anything but encouraging. "The lumbermen," said he, "have all kinds of conditions to contend with. Lower prices are more this year than ever before, and it is costing more every year. Why, look at the logs that will be hung up this year. At the best there will be about 20,000,000 feet, and it conditions do not improve there will be more than that...

A LIVELY ROW

A lively row occurred in a house on St. James Street, west end, last night and it is a wonder that the originator of the trouble was not seriously injured. A man under the influence of liquor went from the city to Carleton and reaching a friend's house on St. James street entered and immediately proceeded to take possession. The occupant was there at the time and with an axe in his hand decried the intruder on the fact that he was the lord and master of his own mansion. That statement did not satisfy the visitor and he swung right and left. Soon the axe was seen to fly through the air but fortunately no damage was done.

MISS ROSELE KNOTT ENDORSES THE PUBLIC PLAYGROUND PROJECT

And Voluntarily Contributes to the Fund--Celebrated Canadian Actress Talks Interestingly on Many Subjects--The Stage as a Profession for Young Women.

"Oh, I do feel for children and for the blind and I believe that any plan which may be devised to help them and render their lot more agreeable is a blessed charity. I am afraid though, that I have but a superficial knowledge of the workings or scope of this public playground plan but I believe in it. "It will take the children off the street; you say and make their surroundings more pleasant? Oh! then, I must help, if I may, and I would like very much to contribute to the fund for the purpose. You may put me down for $10."

ONLOOKER HEARS THINGS

Onlooker, in the New Freeman, hands out today an interesting lot of rumors. One is that there will be political meetings and probably a provincial election before next meeting of the legislature. Another is that Hon. Mr. Tweedie may go to the senate, or the supreme court bench or the governorship, and that Hon. Dr. Pugsley may become solicitor for the G. T. P. at $25,000 per year, and Hon. C. N. Robinson will become leader of the provincial government. Onlooker is nothing if not interesting in his prognostications.

WEDDINGS MALONEY-DONOVAN.

The Church of St. Thomas, Magalloway, was the scene of a happy event last Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, when Miss Nellie T., fourth daughter of Thomas Maloney, was married to James E. Donovan, of Peterborough, by Father Ryan officiating and Nuptial Mass was celebrated.

ANOTHER CIVIC TOUR.

CITY HALL, June 9.—(Special).—De-lighted with the result of the excursion to Loch Lomond, Mayor Sear will next week take a party of aldermen on a walking tour about the city. He would engage carriages for the purpose, but the condition of the streets is such that there would be danger of accident, so saying nothing of the jolting the civic souls would receive. The party will take scaling ladders and material for temporary bridges, and make a careful inspection of many streets as can be visited in an afternoon.

FEVERISH SPEED IN STREET WORK

One Citizen Commends Zeal and Thoroughness with which Carmarthen Street Gutter was Repaired. Two weeks ago, so a prominent citizen who has given the matter his attention and who assures me that they feel certain they are born for the stage and very many of them are not. They ask my advice and I don't ignore their letters, for I think they are entitled to be satisfied to write about it they deserve the courtesy of an answer.

AN ACTION IN COURT.

THE WATERWORKS INSPECTION

The weather is usually a very innocent type, and a favorite one with most people, but when Mr. Peter Binks was asked this morning how he liked the weather, he flew into a passion and made use of some quite dreadful expressions. It appears that Mr. Binks had planned to spend another Sunday at one of the suburban resorts, and anticipated a pleasant time instead of a raincoat and an umbrella and a roll of blankets.

PLAYGROUND FUND APPROACHING $500

Women's Council Meeting This Afternoon Will Deal Fully With the Subject--J. G. Rainnie, of Halifax, Sends Contribution and Very Interesting Letter. The playground fund continues to grow. Two contributions announced today will be especially appreciated. One is from Mrs. Roselle Knott, the distinguished actress, who is now in the city, and the other from J. G. Rainnie, of Halifax, who remembers his own boyhood days in St. John, and recognizes the value of the work now in hand. Mr. Rainnie's letter is as follows:

Halifax, N. S., June 8, 1906. The Editor Daily Times, St. John, N. B.: Dear Sir,—Realizing the necessity of public playgrounds in your city, I consider the fund you have started to procure suitable lands a splendid project, and cheerfully contribute a small amount to this worthy object. Though not now a resident of St. John, I still have tender recollections and remember how many a good game of baseball was contested on the public streets, with the assistance of an elected squire, whose duty it was to keep his "eye pees" for the police. I think there are lots of young men in and out of the city who have encountered the same experience and will gladly contribute towards this scheme when the matter is brought to their notice.
