A rat was the cause of a still alarm sent in to engine house No. 6, King street, Carleton at 7.30 o'clock last night, for a fire in a house owned by Joseph Smith.
The fire was in a store room. Mrs. Smith guished the blaze.

firemen arrived. It was well handled, was completely destroyed and the loss, including tools, will amount to $300. The building was insured for $200 in the Equity.

MORE COMPLAINTS OF SHORT-WEIGHT BUTTER

What a North End Firm Has to Say On Short Weight Question

Further complaints of short weight in creamy butter come from one of the largest grocery stores in north end. A Times man was informed that it was no new thing, as short weight had been found for some years past.

This referred to two-pound creamy prints which are bought from one of the large creameries. It was explained that there is some evaporation after butter is freshly put up, and consequently this should be allowed for in the weighing. The creamery people weighed entirely too close.
While evaporation would in some cases account for short weight it would not by any means, speaking generally, as the firm had received very fresh butter that would hardly have time to evaporate which was below the two-pound regulation.

Speaking of dairy butter, while there was, on some few occasions, short weight, the shipments from up-river were mostly the other way and to no small extent. The fault with the farmers was that their scales were not always true.

CHARLES DORMAN'S TRIP TO THE EAST

How He Enjoyed Himself On His Visit to His Old Home.

The following is taken from a Missoula, Montana, exchange, which has something to say about a St. John boy's visit to his native city.

"Charles Dorman, with his pockets full of dulse and the herring bones sticking out of his back, was busy yesterday greeting his old friends and telling them how New Brunswick looks after being away from it for about 20 years. Mr. Dorman had the time of his life, and he tells, as he smacks his lips over the recollection, of the feeds that he had back there, where the fish grow wild and where there are claims and all the rest of the good things right off the lat. It is not necessary to say that he had a good time. He looks it and he hasn't worn off the smell of the brine and the fish yet. He had the time of his life, and to hear him tell about it has almost made Fred Stoddard forget the apples that grow on the south shore of Michigan. Mr. Dorman is glad he went, and hopes that he will go again before another 20 years passes."

WEDDINGS

Warren-Laud

A quiet wedding took place on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Queen square Methodist parsonage, 43 Duke street, when Miss Ethel M. Laud, eldest daughter of Benjamin Laud, of Golden Grove, was married to George K. Warren, of Dundas (N. J.). Rev. H. D. Marr performed the ceremony.
The bride, who was unattended, wore a tailor-made suit of navy blue broadcloth, with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Warren will make their home in Amherst (N. S.).

Coburn-Golding

An interesting event takes place in Brussels street Baptist church at 6.45 o'clock tomorrow morning, when Miss Olive B. Golding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Golding, Waterloo street, will be united in marriage to Charles Herbert Coburn, of Boston, Mass. Rev. A. B.
Cohor, pastor of Brussels street church, will perform the ceremony. The bride-will be given away by her father and there will be no attendants.
Immediately after the ceremony the newly wedded couple will leave via the steamer Prince Rupert for Boston via Digby and Yarmouth.

Miss Golding, who is a graduate of the Massachusetts General Hospital, and has been practicing in Boston, arrived in St.
John Saturday. Mr. Coburn will arrive today. The best wishes of a large circle of friends will be extended to the bride, who is a popular and talented young lady.

A COMING WEDDING

Invitations have been received here for the wedding which is to take place in Gregg is pastor. Rev. Mr. Gregg is well

Hiram P. Brittain

The death of Hiram P. Brittain at Norton on October 8th removed one of the most successful farmers of that section.
Mr. Brittain was born in 1832 and lived the great part of his life in Springfield.
He was a man of high character and universally respected. He was an active worker in the old Free Baptist denomination. He has been an invalid for the last year or two. His first wife was a Miss Case, daughter of George Case, of Belle-isle. She died sixteen years ago, and two years later he was married to Miss Green, daughter of the late James Green, of Norton, who survives.
