THE LORD MAYOR'S MOTTO

Sir Wm. Thelcar when Lord Mayor of London, said: "My motto for womankind is, 'The better the cook, the happier the husband.'"

There is no earthly reason why wives should not, nowadays, perfect themselves in the gentle art of cooking. Instruction of the very best is open to them; the accumulated experience of centuries is theirs to command and culinary helps such as have never been available before, are brought within the reach of the narrowest purse.

Take, for instance, the delicious H. P.
Salmon, introduced only a short time ago from England. The different choice flavors of Oceanic fish, and the use of the perfectly blended in this new and delicious relish, and the young housewife, with a bottle of H. P. Sauce at her elbow, will make a certain success of the little stews, ragouts, and hashes, which are so much of a puzzle and trial to the inexperienced cook.

The executive of the Canadian Club met last evening, J. Hunter White presiding, and discussed prospects for speakers.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely, so this just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

CANADA IN THE WAR

John J. Donahue, of the 12th battalion, was wounded in recent fighting near Langemark, while fighting with the 14th battalion. His brother, Frank L. Donahue, of 40 Brussels street, received word yesterday.

A draft of forty-nine men from the 56th battalion, was added to the 26th battalion to complete the strength of that unit.

A suggestion emanating from Montreal that white should be emblem of mourning, instead of black, for fallen Canadian soldiers, has found favor with General Hughes.

Several German employees in the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, were discharged yesterday.

Werner Horne, who attempted to blow up the international bridge over the St.
Croix river near Vancouver, B.C., was refused his liberty yesterday after a writ of habeas corpus in Boston, filed by his counsel, Messrs. O'Connell, relying on a plea of illegal jurisdiction.

HAMPTON NEWS

R. E. Fowler's Will Written By Nurse — Major Mercereau in Wife's Care

Hampton, N. B., May 12—In the probate court of Kings county before Judge Freese, the petition of Mrs. Margaret Freese, widow of Russell E. Fowler, late of the parish of Hampton, farmer, was presented for administration of the latter's estate, consisting of two farms, the homestead of 280 acres with buildings, on which is a mortgage of $1,000, valued at $1,800; and a piece of land without buildings, consisting of 150 acres, unincumbered, valued at $400, making the realty $2,200 and the personality valued at $1,600, or $3,800 in all. Mr. Otty, proctor for the estate, presented a will written at testator's dictation on the afternoon of the day before his death by his nurse, Miss Josephine C. Scribner, and witnessed by her and Miss Sadie Clark, an inmate of the house. The document was sealed up and entrusted to the custody of the latter, to be handed to the widow in case of his death, which was done.

Judge Freese, after hearing argument of the proctor on the efficiency of the will, which gives all his property to his widow for her benefit and that of his six minor children, and taking the testimony of the two witnesses, took the question of probating the will into consideration.

Alex. McManus, baggage-master at this station, who broke his leg while handling a load of trunks over a week ago is doing well at his home at Lakeside Station and hoping to be able to resume his duties in a few weeks at the latest. Meanwhile his place is being very satisfactorily filled by Walter Conway.

A memorial service for the late Sergt.- Major Arthur Adams, reported killed at the battle of Ypres, was held in the Anglican church here last Sunday. On Monday morning, Mrs. James Adams, received a letter from Arthur dated before his reported death, in which he said he was recovering from a slight wound received at the front. There was nothing to indicate anything serious and it is now hoped that a soldier of a similar name has taken the place of the Hampton boy. There will be further inquiries to establish the facts before all hope is abandoned.

E. G. and Mrs. Evans went to Montreal to bid their son, Harry Hilly Evans, good-bye on his starting with the McGill Medical Corps for England and the front.

Some further information is to hand with regard to John Craig, the soldier who deserted from the 26th Regiment at St. John and who was arrested and convicted of stealing a horse and wagon from Sussex, and who thereon was discharged from the 26th, and is now lying in jail here awaiting sentence. The report given to Sheriff Freese today is that on their tramp from St. John Craig and the girl who accompanied him broke in to the summer home of T. McGuire at Quispamsis and took possession of such articles as they required, leaving the military suit of the man and the well worn garments of the woman in place of Mr. McGuire's comfortable suit and Mrs. McGuire's more fashionable dresses, etc.

John March went to St. John on Sunday to attend the 103th anniversary of the German street Baptist church. He was baptized into the fellowship of the church in 1856, and is among the oldest members, if not the oldest. He was also a deacon of the church under the first pastorate of the Rev. Dr. Gates.
