

C. Fitzgerald Halts Winning Streak of Watermen, Holding Them to 2 Hits and 2 Runs

St. Roses Take Fourth Game of City Championship Series as Opponents Play Listless Game—Ed. Snodgrass and F. Fitzgerald Feature

A BRILLIANT pitching performance by Charlie Fitzgerald in which he let the champion Water Department team down with two hits, enabled St. Rose's to halt the penning rush of last year's Maritime champions on the North End grounds last evening before a big crowd when the Fairville lads won, 4 to 2.

Ragged baseball by the Watermen, they having no less than eight errors chalked up against them, coupled with young Fitzgerald's airtight pitching, spelled the first victory in the title series for the Saints which now stands at 8 to 1. The next game is carded for the East End grounds on Thursday night of this week.

The Saints annexed a run in the first inning, but the Watermen came right back when Sparks scored from third in an attempt to head him off from stealing from second base. The Fairville team won the game in the second inning by jamming over three runs and with this lead, Fitzgerald rode home to an easy victory. McPhee opened proceedings with a single and stole second and third. C. Fitzgerald grounded out but McMurray got a walk and stole second. On O'Toole's squeeze play, McPhee scored, McMurray taking third and later scoring on a long sacrifice fly by Freddie Fitzgerald. O'Toole brought over No. 9 when Sparks booted Murphy's grounder. The Watermen got another run when, with two out, Gorman scored from third on a throw to first that was lost in the gun by Britt.

FIELDING FEATURES.

Fielding features were supplied by Ed Snodgrass and Freddie Fitzgerald, both making excellent catches. Snodgrass in right field this year for the Watermen has been instrumental in several lightning double plays and he staged one last night that drew rounds of applause.

Hannah confined his opponents to five hits of the scratchy variety, but the Watermen could not fathom Fitzgerald's benders.

McTIGUE SCORES K.O. ON KING SOLOMON

Terrific Right to Jaw Ends New York Battle in Eleventh Round

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Mike McTigue, of New York, knocked out King Solomon, of Panama in the eleventh round of a scheduled 12-round match at the Queensboro Stadium tonight. The eleventh round had gone one minute and 27 seconds when McTigue landed a terrific right to the jaw. Solomon fell and was counted out after a feeble effort to rise.

McTigue pounded Solomon with little resistance in the last three rounds after the Panama heavyweight had taken a lead in the early sessions. The former light heavyweight champion was far in the lead on points before the knockout. McTigue was 16½ pounds lighter than his opponent, who weighed 189½.

Knute Hansen, Racine, Wis., heavyweight, knocked out Quintin Romero, of Chile, in the third round of a scheduled 10-round semi-final.

A most dramatic story of the Canadian Northwest—a thrilling, virile rubbing of romance of gold rush days when men fought, loved and died in their mad search for riches, and of a dance hall girl who found her soul in love's crucible—a remarkable picture.
