

DIFFER IN ADVICE TO THE BOY SCOUTS

Parson and Peer Do Not Agree in Counsel Given in Bedford Church.

London, Sept. 4.—(Associated Press, by Mail).—It would appear to be the fate of Boy Scouts the world over to have to listen to good advice from their elders. In England the boys take it good humoredly and patiently as all in the day's work.

But recently a group of Scouts must have been perplexed, as well as amused, when the good advice from two speakers did not in the least agree. They had come in to Bedford to attend church. The Vicar, the Rev. A. O. Cheney, addressed them. He warned them against smoking as "a dirty and disgusting habit."

He told them to remember to keep the Sabbath day holy and not to go about "making a noise and disturbing the villagers." (The boys had marched to church headed by bugles and drums).

Nor, he said, should anything be done on Sunday which entailed extra work for anyone. (The villagers had agreed to entertain the visiting scouts to tea). The Vicar said he never entertained anyone on Sundays; people should stay at home on Sunday and help along the activities of the church.

After the service Lord Amptill got his turn at the boys. He said that smoking had been helpful to some of the greatest men in the world. One of the wisest philosophers used to smoke like a chimney. But, of course, it wouldn't be right for small boys to smoke.

He always entertained his friends on Sunday, he said. He honored God by going to church Sunday morning. The idea of Sunday, he told the boys, was that it should be a day of rest which meant abstention from ordinary work. So long as they did not disturb the peace of their villages, they need have no compunctions in turning out on Sunday to pay a friendly compliment to a new troop.

One of the grownups suggested that the parson and parson should hold a public discussion on the subject, the proceeds to be divided equally between the church and Scouts.

EINSTEIN IS STUDYING
QUANTA LIGHT THEORY
Similar to Newtonian Hypothesis As Opposed to the Wave Theory.

The quanta theory and the study of electrons are occupying Dr. Albert Einstein, proponent of the relativity theory, at present, according to Dr. Arnold Sommerfeld, professor of mathematical physics at the University of Munich, who was in New York on his way to the University of Wisconsin, where he will hold the Carl Schurz Memorial professorship this winter.

According to the quanta theory light is not a wave motion in the ether but it consists of flying particles of energy. This is a return to the Newtonian hypothesis, which also held that light consisted of flying particles or corpuscles, which produced the sensation of light when they struck the eye. Newton was overruled in favor of the wave theory, however.

"The wave theory explains most of the behavior of light, but not all of it," Dr. Sommerfeld said. "Einstein's researches on heat indicated that light did not consist only of waves spreading out uniformly in all directions, but that it consisted partly, at least, of concentrated particles, or quanta, of energy. X-ray and other researches have strengthened this theory. Einstein is doing much work in this field."

SHE IS 104 AND HAS
SMOKED PIPE 76 YEARS
Sheffield, Eng., Sept. 4.—(A. P. by mail).—Mrs. Ann Haykins has just celebrated her 103rd birthday by riding in a motor car for the first time. She attributes her longevity to plain living. She thinks that smoking tobacco also has something to do with it. She has smoked a pipe for seventy-six years.

GIRL SAVED FIVE FROM DROWNING

Automobile was Crowded
Over Thirty-foot Embankment
Into River.

Saranac Lake, Sept. 21.—Sixteen-year-old Catherine Doty and five other persons, three of them children, were passengers in a closed automobile that was crowded off the Wilmington Road by another car over a thirty-foot embankment into the Ausable River near here. When the car hit the river the top broke off and the glass sides held the rushing waters from the occupants. Catherine, an expert swimmer, seized Freda Vidaver, an infant, and carried her to shore. Then she returned and rescued a child. On her third trip through the waters she rescued Helen Doty, her younger sister. When the children were saved she returned to the wreck to help M. Vidaver, driver, and his wife, both injured, to the shore. Vidaver told the police he was too excited to notice the driver of the car he claims pushed him off the bank into the river. "I have the license number," said Catherine quietly, and from her wet dress she pulled a piece of birch bark upon which she had written the number from memory with a pencil borrowed from a motorist who rushed the party to Lake Placid. The police are communicating with Plattsburg, which is said to be the home of the driver they seek. Vidaver suffered a broken arm, while his wife was badly cut and bruised. The children with the exception of Freda Vidaver, who was cut about the head, were unharmed.

AUSTRALIA'S IMPRESSION OF AMERICAN HOTEL CHARGES

Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 25.—(Associated Press by Mail).—Senator Pearce attended the Washington Limitation of Armament Conference as Australian representative. Upon his return he presented a bill of expenses amounting to approximately $40,000. Some senators thought this was high, but the commonwealth treasurer, Mr. Bruce, came forward as one with experience of hotel bills in the United States, and declared one could not live in a Washington hotel for $250 a week unless one had no meals.

CURZON AND JOFFE.

Paris, Sept. 3.—(A. P. by mail).—Lord Curzon, the British foreign secretary, arrived in Paris the other day at the Quai d'Orsay station, and found the passenger elevator out of order. He complained to the station-master, who, with much diffidence, proposed that the noble lord could reach the street level by means of the freight elevator. Lord Curzon accepted without enthusiasm, and just as the elevator boy was slamming the gates shut, there came rushing toward the lift a thick-set elderly man breathing heavily. He made as if to enter the elevator, but the attendants waved him off. "I am just as heavy and as old as your lone passenger," the man declared, "why should you refuse to take me up?" "Because this is Lord Curzon," responded the railroad man impressively. "Oh, well, that's all right," replied the stranger, making for the stairs, "I'm only Joffe." He was given a lift.

DRUG SMUGGLING IN BURMA HAS BECOME AN ART

Rangoon, Burma, Aug. 20.—(Associated Press, by Mail).—The drug smugglers of India and Burma, through long years of experience, have developed a finished system of operations which has little resemblance to the more or less crude and hit or miss methods of run runners in the United States.

The men who finance the smuggling of drugs, says R. K. Anderson, superintendent of the Burmese excise department, are to all appearance respectable, well-to-do merchants, with flourishing businesses in piece goods, rice or timber which hide their real occupations as traffickers in opium, cocaine, morphine and hemp drugs. These men do not handle the drugs, but leave the details to hosts of underlings. If an underling is arrested, fined, and sent to jail, his principal pays his fine, gives him his salary, and supports his family while he is in prison.

"That a certain man in a smuggler is well known to the authorities," reports Mr. Anderson. "In fact the suspect will cheerfully admit it. He knows that he cannot be touched unless the contraband is found in his possession."

The chief source of protection to smugglers is the accessibility to bribery of those who are charged with the duty of preventing smuggling. They can make more money by failing to suppress smuggling than by suppressing it.

COMMISSIONER BULLOCK TELLS OF CONVENTION

Commissioner Thomas H. Bullock returned yesterday from Toronto. He said he had no hesitation in saying that the annual convention of American Association of Port Authorities, which he attended last week, was the best in the history of the association. The papers read were of a high order. The meeting, he said, was of real importance, at which there was an expression of opinion from experts in their respective lines. The principal ports of the United States and Canada were represented, also that of London, England. The last century showed a marked increase in railway promotion. The present period is showing a marked development in port and harbor improvements—both as to facilities and operation.

What I Have Learned in 47 Years Practice

I HAVE been watching the results of constipation for 47 years, since I began the practice of medicine back in 1875. I am now 83 years old, and though from time to time the medical profession makes some wonderfully interesting experiments and tests, the fundamentals of causes and relief in this particular ailment are unchanged.

But the people take greater interest today in their health, in diet, exercise and the drinking of water. Constipation, however, will occur from time to time no matter how one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. I believe in getting as close to nature as possible, hence my remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It is made of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. Children will not willingly take bitter things. Laxative Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written me to that effect.

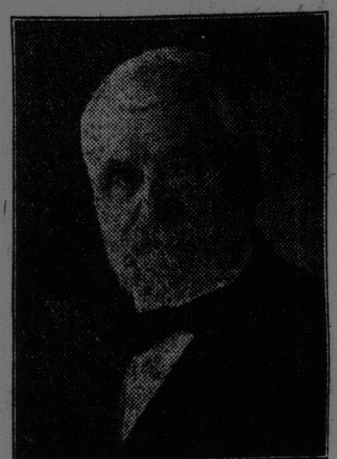

Over 10 million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin are now sold every year, and it is the most widely bought family laxative in the world. I say family laxative because all in the family can use it with safety. It is mild enough for the infant in arms, effective in the most chronic constipation of an adult. The formula is on every package.

TAKE DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN
LAXATIVE The family remedy

Recently there has been a new wave of drastic physics. Calomel, a mercurial that salivates and loosens teeth, has been revived; salt waters and powders that draw needed constituents from the blood; coal tar disguised in candy form that causes skin eruptions. In a practice of 47 years I have never seen any reason for their use when a medicine like Laxative Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without griping, and without shock to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It lowers your strength 28 per cent, hardens the arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope but go to a druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin. It is a generous-size bottle. Take a teaspoonful at night and by morning you will be well. The cost is only about a cent a dose. Use Laxative Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crummy stomach, piles, indigestion, loss of appetite or sleep, and to break up fevers and colds. Always have a bottle in the house, and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open.

Discarded HURLBUTS Given New Life

To take a child's shoe which shows signs of wear, or one that has been outgrown, and actually rebuild it at the factory, adding one-half size to the length—that is a part of the Hurlbut service to parents. It is unique in the shoe industry.

Rebuilding is more than ordinary repairing. The worn parts—soles, insoles, tips, vamps or linings—are actually replaced with new material and the shoe made practically as good as new. The cost is moderate; the result more economy on shoes which, even aside from this feature, give the lowest cost per day of wear.

Write for "Rebuilt Service" price list and we will enclose copy of the "Pussy-Foot Jingle Book" in colors. The youngsters will enjoy it.
