

Jockey Club Sued By Crippled Rider

Grover Cleveland Fuller Sued to Compel Stewards to Make Allowance for His Support.

New York, June 18.—Supreme Court Justice Cobham heard the suit Wednesday of Grover Cleveland Fuller, leading jockey of the country at the time he was injured permanently in 1905, at the Jamaica Race Track when the horse Witful fell on him, to compel the stewards of the Jockey Club to make an allowance for his support. The Jockey, through his attorney, John J. Halligan, of Halligan, Henkel & Ladd, asked that the payment be made to him from the fund collected by the Jockey Club as the result of fines and assessments on jockeys and trainers, and gave evidence that the fund available now amounts to $24,000, although twice that sum has been paid in the Jockey Club setting aside half the sum collected for business purposes.

Algeron Dainierfeld, secretary of the Jockey Club, and Fuller were in court ready to testify, but the court confined the issue to the contention by Fuller that the case is barred by the Statute of Limitations, and that the court has no power over the Jockey Club in the present case because after the fund had been in existence for some years the Jockey Club declared that the fund should be dispersed at the discretion of the club.

Mr. Halligan argued that the fund is collected as a trust for the jockeys requiring aid from it, because of illness or injuries, and for that reason there is no time limit upon it, and demands may be made upon it at any time. The attorney argued that the Jockey Club could not invoke equity in the case because it did not come into court with "clean hands," after having acted arbitrarily in the matter. The club paid Fuller $25 a month for a year and then discontinued, without giving any reason. Justice Cobham asked Mr. Halligan if he contended that the Jockey Club must take care of a permanently disabled jockey for life, and the attorney replied, that in exercising its discretion, the club should pay something as long as the jockey was in need. The court declined to dismiss the action on the ground of the Statute of Limitations, but reserved decision after asking for briefs. Justice Cobham conferred with the attorney at the close of the case and it is understood that he suggested a settlement, although the attorneys refused to discuss it.

Honors Paid To Holy Eucharist

Spiritual and Eucharistic Bouquets Presented in Cathedral—Ordination in Halifax Next Sunday.

In the Cathedral yesterday afternoon there was a congregation of nearly 1,000 present for the presentation of the Spiritual Bouquet from the school children of the parish and the Eucharistic Bouquet from the Children of Mary. Rev. W. M. Duke, rector of the Cathedral, was in charge and spoke to the children on the object of the bouquets. A children's choir sang and the Benediction concluded the service.

The Spiritual Bouquet of the children, which was accumulated from September to June, represented 26,672 hours of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. This was 9,000 hours more than last year.

The Eucharistic Bouquet of the Children of Mary was accumulated during the month of May. It represented 7,077 Sacramental Communions, and 348,264 spiritual communions; 12,903 masses heard and forty-three masses offered. The stipends for the forty-three masses offered were contributed by the school children.

It was announced at the Cathedral yesterday that Alphonsus Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris, Golding street, would be ordained subdeacon at Holy Heart Seminary in Halifax on Sunday next.

It was announced that the celebrant of Mass at 11:30 o'clock in the Cathedral next Sunday would be Rev. Leonard McGuire, C.S.S.R., who was ordained to the priesthood yesterday at Bishop-on-the-Hudson.

A successful concert was held at Little River Hall on Friday evening by the Ladies of the Community Club. About twenty-five girls of the community took part. A splendid programme, consisting of songs, recitations and drills, was presented, each number receiving much applause. Mrs. G. Meakins as convener, assisted by Mrs. J. Davidson and Miss Green, were given much credit for the training of the little ones. Home made candy was sold during the evening. The proceeds go to defray the Club expenses.

SHIPS THAT PASS AT NIGHT RING A BELL ON SHORE

Vienna, May 29.—(Associated Press by mail).—Austrian inventors have perfected an instrument which automatically and accurately records the passage of any vessel over a given body of water, night or day, to observers who may be located on shore. An aid in catching smugglers, and a help to coast defence in war time, the invention is regarded as distinctly valuable.

The device consists of a small search light sending a ray no bigger than a pencil across the space to be controlled, and a receiving apparatus at the other end containing a light-sensitive selenium cell. Whenever a passing vessel interrupts the rays of the search light, the selenium cell closes a relay which starts a bell alarm, or operates a recording device.

The instrument in question was tested recently between two points three and one half miles apart, in the outskirts of Vienna, and the passage of every object, as well as every person, was recorded. These tests were made in broad daylight, with a fifty candle power incandescent lamp as the source of light.

John Givallione, an Italian laborer employed with the Stephen Brick Co., Ltd., was badly injured on Saturday afternoon. About 2:30 he was at work digging a pit on the company's premises when the earth caved in, partially burying him. The ambulance was called and he was taken to the General Public Hospital. Treatment was given.

The Growth of an Ideal

ON this Continent the object of the Fraternal Benefit Society, from the beginning, was the "Protection of the Home."

An all worthy ideal but the too slender provision in the rates—only immediate claims; ignored the principles of Life Insurance; failed to provide for future liabilities.

In 1881 the Independent Order of Foresters came under the masterful influence of Oronhyateka and the headquarters of the Order naturally moved to his home town of London, Ontario.

Oronhyateka, who proved to be one of the outstanding personalities developed by the Fraternities of America, in 1881 faced secession and a deficit in the Treasury. With the remaining 369 loyal members he built to the Fraternal system of the day by adding—medical selection of the lives insured and regular monthly payments into the Life Insurance Fund, graded according to the age at entry.

The remaining steps of the Order to fully adequate rates and adequate reserves took years of education and effort but to-day the 100,000 members of the Order have behind their Certificates $40,000,000, providing the full reserves required by law, as well as additional reserves and surplus of more than $1,600,000.

From the contribution at the time of death to adequate Reserves for all insurance certificates is the evolution of the Order, and the spirit of Fraternity was not lost.

Newspaper Party Delighted With Reception Here

President in Reply to Address of Welcome Stresses Value of Trip to East—A Busy Day.

A warm reception was given to the members of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association and their wives when they arrived in the city on Saturday at noon. They were met at the station by a reception committee composed of C. B. Allan, R. E. Armstrong, R. A. Macaulay and J. C. Berle and taken to King Square on special street cars by the Haymarket loop.

Luncheon was served at the Paradise Grill. The guests were personally greeted by Mayor Fisher who stood at the door until all had entered. His Worship presided with A. R. Brennan, of Summerside, president of the association and E. Roy Sales, of Toronto, treasurer and manager, on his right, and Commissioners Thornton and Wigmore on his left.

When the guests were seated Mayor Fisher welcomed them to the city. He was glad they had come to St. John, and that they were eager to learn of our problems. The city, together with the province, had taken an important step recently, one that would tend to increase comfort and production and make the city a better place to live and do business in. He referred to hydro power which had been introduced after a hard fight by the citizens. The province had taken the initiative and although St. John had been a little slow to grasp the idea it now had done so thoroughly.

The Mayor outlined the programme for the entertainment of the association and introduced several St. John people to them, including Commissioners Thornton and Wigmore, R. A. Macaulay, H. A. Porter, J. C. Berle, C. B. Allan, A. M. Belding, and R. E. Armstrong. He then called upon Rev. A. L. Fleming, the speaker of the occasion.

Rev. Mr. Fleming made a witty and interesting speech in which he said that duties of the church and press were closely allied in that it was the business of both to lead the public to the right path.

After the luncheon the ladies of the party were taken by automobile to points of interest. The men were taken to East St. John to view the drydock and showed great interest in what was being done there. E. G. Evans was present to answer questions of which there were many. The ladies were entertained at five o'clock at tea by Mayor G. Frederick Fisher and Mrs. Fisher. In the evening many attended the Imperial theatre and the Venetian Gardens where special arrangements had been made for them. W. H. Golding, manager of the theatre, welcomed the visitors and the welcome was broadcasted all over Canada. The party spent Saturday night aboard their train and left yesterday morning for Digby on a special trip of the Empire Dining Service. It was conducted on the way over by Rev. A. H. Moore of St. John's, Quebec, a member of the association. They reached Halifax about ten o'clock last night.

FRANCE FORGING AHEAD IN WORLD-WIDE RADIO

London, May 26.—(Associated Press by mail).—The British authorities have been criticised of late for their failure to promote radio communication on a world scale, and with permitting France, Germany and the U. S. to occupy this field to the exclusion of England.

It is pointed out that France is planning a great station at Pondicherry, India, and that in July she will open a high power station at Buenos Aires. Later in the year two other stations will be ready in South America. These will be in direct communication with the French station at Saint Asie, with Nauen in Germany, and with Long Island, New York.

From Saint Asie, France, by radio will reach India, China and Japan on the east, and North and South America on the west.
