the latter being for bridge work. The scrap metal market continues to be poor. The volume of business done is very small. One of the large dealers claims that his firm has not a single contract at the present time, nor is it anxious to make one, because it would be unable to buy at the low figures being asked for.

GROCERY MARKET
The following comment on the market situation as regards food stuffs in Canadian Grocer this week: The markets for general grocery commodities are ruling fairly steady although there appears to be considerable price cutting by wholesale houses. Sugar refiners are holding their list price but there is a great deal of irregularity in prices, many houses cutting prices to practically below their cost, undoubtedly in many instances this is being done in order to clear up prices advanced 2-4 cent per pound in an unsettled condition although during the past week the undertone was somewhat strengthened.

COMMENT ON IRON, STEEL, METAL AND MACHINERY
In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets for week ending May 19th, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment: The matter of turning from the period of liquidation to straight business one is being completed by the attention of dealers in the iron, steel, and to some extent in the tool market. For some months the market has been engaged in reducing their stocks and for this purpose they have, in many cases, given special discounts in lines where they were heavily stocked with high-cost goods. In a number of cases quite recently dealers are not ready to state with any degree of certainty that they are still in possession of the market and this tendency is making it hard for business generally to get away to a fresh start, as the liquidation price is still being paid for the market to follow.

THE MARKETS AT A GLANCE
Contrasting sharply with the recent declines in the hardware markets in the increase announced this week on rope and cordage, says Hardware and Metal. Also prominent among this week's quotations is the increase of another 2 cents on Monday while turpentine prices are unsettled. Rosin and shellac are also evident in the largest metal markets. Solder quotations are 2 cents per pound higher and zinc products show slight price increase. Range boiler prices are unsettled with a tendency to reduced quotations. Re-
