Daily Hints For the Cook

SOFT SUGAR COOKIES.
 Two cups of sugar, one cup of butter, two eggs, one cup of buttermilk, one level teaspoon of soda, seven cups of flour, one teaspoon of baking powder, a little nutmeg. Roll and cut with a cookie cutter and bake in a hot oven on top of the grate.

FROSTED CREAM.
 One and one half cups of New Orleans molasses, one half cup of sugar, one tablespoon of ginger, pinch of salt, two-thirds cup of hot lard, two-thirds cup of boiling water, one level teaspoon of soda, six cups of sifted flour. Bake in dripping pan, roll with floured tumbler. Bake in a moderate oven on the grate. Using one cup of pulverized sugar, two tablespoons of water or milk, beat well. When cold cut in squares. This will make four dozen, and they are fine.

JUDGE CAKE.
 One-third cup butter, two cups sugar, one cup sweet milk, two and one-half cups flour, one-half cup cocoa, three eggs, whites and yolks beaten separately, two level teaspoons baking powder, one salt, vanilla to flavor, cream, sugar, and butter, then add well beaten yolks, sift flour, cocoa, baking powder and together, milk and flour alternately, then add well beaten whites. Any good icing can be used.

PLAIN FRUIT CAKE.
 Cream one cup butter with one cup sugar, add two eggs well beaten, one cup milk, one cup molasses and four cups flour with two teaspoons mixed spice and one teaspoon soda. Then stir in one cup raisins and one cup chopped nuts. Bake in a deep pan.

LOYALIST DAY

Flags Flying, a School Holiday; Tonight's Celebration in Keith's

Flags were flying and the school children are observing a holiday today in honor of the anniversary of the landing of the Loyalists. Tomorrow, in the schools an admirable paper on Major Andre, prepared by D. R. Jack, will be read to them. Archdeacon Raymond, in Trinity church on Sunday, will preach the annual sermon to the members of the Loyalist Society. It is expected that the assembly rooms in Keith's will be well-filled this evening at the united meeting of the Men's and Women's Canadian Clubs. D. J. Seely, president of the Loyalist Society, will preside at the gathering tonight. As a preliminary there will be piano music by Mrs. D. P. Chisholm. The National Anthem will be sung by the gathering, and a patriotic solo by Fred McKean will be delivered by the chairman, Mrs. E. A. Smith, president of the Women's Canadian Club and George A. Henderson, president of the Men's Canadian Club.

A short paper will be read by D. R. Jack, which will occupy about fifteen minutes. Miss Frances Travers will follow with a vocal solo after which will come Dr. Mackinnon's address on Some Compensations of Loyalty. This will be followed by a patriotic solo by Fred McKean and the serving of light refreshments. The gathering will break up after singing the National Anthem.
