

RECENT WEDDINGS

Dearborn-Ritchie.
A quiet wedding was solemnized in Boston, Mass., on December 24, when Elizabeth E. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Ritchie, 13 Wentworth street, St. John, became the bride of G. Sherman Dearborn, youngest son of Mrs. and the late F. R. E. Dearborn, of St. John, Rev. Father Hartigan officiating. The bride was attired in a travelling costume of navy blue with hat to match and sealskin furs. Luncheon was served at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Harris, cousin of the bride, after which the happy pair left for New York. The bride was remembered by the board of communicants and staff of the St. John Free Public Library, where she was assistant librarian.

Hall-Norris.
On Wednesday, Dec. 20, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Bruce A. Hall, of New Town, N. B., and Miss Helena Margaret Norris, of Barnesville, were united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage in Haymarket square, Rev. A. Lawrence Tedford officiating. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William Ward, 98 Winter street. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives and a few specially invited friends being present. The bridal pair left on the evening train for their future home in New Town. The good wishes of their friends have been extended to them that they may have a long and happy married life.

Keth-Stewart.
At Canadian Rapids, Queens County, on Wednesday evening, Miss Hazel Rita Stewart was married to Addison Sanford Keth of Havlock. The officiating clergyman was Rev. C. A. S. Narneford.

RECENT DEATHS

Sister Catherine Gertrude.
The news of the death of Sister Catherine Gertrude, which occurred on Christmas eve at St. Vincent's Convent, Cliff street, came as a great shock to her many relatives and friends. Although in poor health for some time, the end came quite unexpectedly before relatives could be summoned to her death bed.

Sister Catherine Gertrude was a native of Harvey, York county, and before her entrance to the order of the Sisters of Charity had taught in different parts of New Brunswick.

She entered the community about seven years ago and has taught the city schools and other schools taught by the sisters in the province. Her brother, Rev. W. Donahue, is the pastor of Johnville. At the present time her father and mother are visiting him. Sister Clement Agnes, of the Sisters of Charity, is her sister. Two brothers beside Rev. W. Donahue, survive her—William, of Weymouth, Mass., and Frank, of West St. John. Mrs. S. Burns, of Fredericton Junction; Mrs. J. McDonald, of Weymouth, Mass., and Miss May Donahue, a nurse, of Boston, are sisters.

Sister Catherine Gertrude's religious life has been comparatively short but in the few years she laid up treasure in heaven by her virtuous and holy life and edifying example. She is deeply mourned by her sisters in religion.

The funeral will take place from St. Vincent's Chapel, Cliff street, on Tuesday morning, December 26, after the requiem mass, which begins at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. James Millican.
The death of Mrs. Melissa B. Millican, widow of James Millican occurred suddenly on Sunday at the residence of her son-in-law, H. G. Thompson, Wright street. Mrs. Millican had appeared in her usual health on Saturday and had been busy with her preparations for Christmas when she was taken seriously ill and survived only a short while. So sudden was her illness and death that two of her children who were hastily summoned were not able to reach her bedside in time to see her alive. Sincere sympathy has gone out to the bereaved family. Mrs. Millican was widely esteemed and greatly beloved for her kindly nature. She was a native of Cumberland Bay, Queens county, and a daughter of the late James A. McLean. General H. H. McLean is a cousin. She had resided in St. John for the last fifty years and was a devoted member of Knox Presbyterian church. The announcement of her death in Knox church and the Portland Methodist church on Sunday caused wide-spread regret. She is survived by five sons, Fred S., of Hermon Beach, Calif., James, of Medicine Hat, Frank A., of Spokane, Washington; A. Gordon, of Cleveland, Ohio; and Walter H., of this city, and three daughters, Mrs. H. H. James and Mrs. H. G. Thompson, of this city, and Mrs. T. L. Fuller, of Toronto. Mrs. Fuller arrived in St. John on Sunday. The funeral will be held today from the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Thompson, in Wright street.

James Logan.
The many friends of James Logan will regret to hear of his death, which occurred at Hampton on Saturday afternoon after a short illness. He was a life-long resident of Hampton, having been born at Hampton Village in 1844. For many years he was engaged in the lumbering business throughout the province. Mr. Logan was a man of the highest integrity and was well liked by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife and four children, J. M. Logan, of this city; John F., of Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss E. M. Logan, R.N., of this city, and Mrs. W. Emmett McMonagle, of Moncton. The funeral will be held this morning at 10 o'clock from St. Alphonsus church at Hampton.

Simon Harvey Kempton.
(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Liverpool, N. S., Dec. 25.—Simon Harvey Kempton, sixty-seven, of Milton, well-known Queens county citizen, died suddenly from heart failure Saturday evening. Until his retirement from the business two years ago, he was one of the partners of Kempton

Everything For The Winter Wardrobe

Almost everybody finds that the holiday season brings with it a call for new wearables of some kind. Winter festivities at their height necessitate plenty of smart frocks for afternoon and evening wear. Colder days make heavy coats and warm furs imperative—and all such accessories as Gloves and Hosiery must be in keeping.

Our stocks are ready with the wanted wearables and accessories.

Evening Frocks are Modishly Styled
Another Evening Dress added to your wardrobe will give it a new charm. All the smart winter modes are featured in our collection. Prices on many of these frocks have been definitely lowered. You'll find it an easy matter to select a becoming model. There are handsome dresses developed in velvet broche, satin messaline, georgette crepe and soft taffetas. These are showing in pale flower tints, striking bright colors and subdued darker shades. Styles are suitable for miss or matron, and the new lines are undeniably smart.

Afternoon Dresses are Charming and Practical
Many are made from the soft, clinging crepe weaves so popular with good dressers. Draped skirts and loose panels are both strongly featured in dresses of this sort. Sleeve styles are varied and becoming and neck lines are low or fairly high—as you desire. You may choose from a selection of light, medium or dark colors.

Winter Coats are All Bargain Priced.
Whether you prefer a strictly tailored mannish coat in heavy checked back, or soft piled coat cloth, or a fur trimmed coat in Bolivia or velour—it's here, and at a bargain price.

Wonderful Value Offered in Fine Furs
High Grade Fur Coats and Neck Pieces in authentic modes and reliable pelts offer very unusual values at this store now. Present prices are but a fraction of the original. Christmas money put into these furs will be well invested.

TIRED OF TATTOO;
HAD TRAIN CUT
OFF HIS ARM

New York, Dec. 24.—(By Canadian Press)—Because he was tired of a brightly tattooed figure on his right arm James J. Scanlon of Shamokin, Pa., placed his arm on the Pennsylvania Railroad track in Newark, Scanlon told detectives at the City Hospital where he now lies recovering from the result of his act. A trainman drilling freight cars found Scanlon beside the track with his right arm severed at the elbow, he confessed that the figure of an undraped woman tattooed in bright colors on his arm had grown monotonous to him and he deliberately placed his arm upon the track.
