

An Oriental Judgment.
A young man going a journey, entrusted a hundred dollars to an old man; who, when he came back, the old man denied having any money deposited with him, and said up before the Kanzeo.
"Here were you, young man, when you delivered this money?"
"Under a tree."
"Take my seal and summons that tree!" said the Judge.
The young man went, in wonder. After he had been gone sometime, the Kanzeo said to the old man:—
"He is long—do you think he has got there yet?"
"No," said the old man; "it is some distance, he has not got there yet."
"How knowest thou old man where that tree is?"
The young man returned, and said the tree would not come.
"He has been here young man, and given his evidence—the money is thine."
Barristers have a ludicrous habit of identifying themselves with their clients by speaking in the plural number. "Gentlemen of the jury," said a luminary of the Western circuit, "at the moment the policeman says he saw us at the tap, I will prove that we were locked up in the station-house, in a state of intoxication."
—The London Lancet says that large quantities of saw-logs are made, in that city, from horse-flesh. Panch says he believes it, as he invariably has the night mare when he has eaten them for supper.
—Why are sheep the most dissipated and unfortunate of animals? Because they gambol in their youth—frequent the turf, are very often black-legs and are universally fleeced.

News from the Old Country.
THE great interest felt by many in the news from Europe, and especially from Great Britain and Ireland, has led the Editor of the "Colonial Press" to devote not only the inside columns but nearly all the available space on the first and last pages to NEWS. There is no paper published in New Brunswick which gives so fully the news from England!
The news from Scotland!
The news from Ireland!
The increasing circulation and popularity of the paper have induced its conductors to engage a LONDON CORRESPONDENT, who is the Editor of a London journal, and whose letters are read with much interest and copied by many newspapers. He will devote special attention to the proceedings of
THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT, soon about to meet; also to the STATE OF IRELAND,
in which Unionism has again made its appearance, in deeds of violence and assassination. The proceedings of our own House of Assembly
will be furnished by a special Correspondent.
The latest News by Telegraph from New York, Halifax, and all the N. B. telegraph offices is purchased, especially for this paper, which has frequently announced the most interesting and important news in ADVANCE of EVERY OTHER PAPER IN NEW BRUNSWICK. The Religious Intelligence of
ALL RELIGIOUS DENOMINATIONS
is published without reference to sect or party. Although more money is spent in producing the "Colonial Press" than on any paper of its class in the Province, the price is no greater than that of journals which are published at a third of the cost!
Clubbing.
CLUBS of five or more can have the paper for one year for $1.50 each subscriber, single subscribers for $2.00, a short credit will be given.
Teachers, Postmasters and other intelligent and active persons who may take the trouble of forming clubs or soliciting single subscribers, will, on receding lists, be allowed a discount of TWENTY PER CENT. to cover any expense or loss of time incurred.
Names of new subscribers will be received by any of the local agents. They may be sent to JAMES KINNEY, St. Andrews,
