FIND THAT DEATH WAS DUE TO SUFFOCATION

Coroner's Jury Investigates Death of William Hooper of Duncan.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of Wm. Hooper, day morning, was investigated by a coroner's jury the same afternoon, and a verdict returned that the man had suffocated as a result of a piece of meat sticking in his windpipe. The story as told at the inquest was that while Hooper was eating in the Commercia restaurant, corner of Cormorant and Douglas streets, he was suddnly seized with illness and was conveyed to the door, where he commenced to vomit While so engaged a piece of meat became lodged in his windpipe, causing his death. As soon as the seriousness of the man's condition was noted he
