Givers and Philipsburgh, at the latter station re placing the 1st Provincial Regiment, which is to be disbanded on the 30th April next, when its term of service expires.

The 14th Regiment, now stationed at Kingstor will take the place of the 85th, at Amberstburgh the latter corps, with the 1st Royals, constituting the latter corps, with the 1st Royals, constituting the Garrison of London.

The 43t Light Infantry, (now at Toronto am Ringston), the 70th Regiment (now at Lapraria and Isls any Noix), and the 71st Light Infantry (from 8t, Johns) will flow the Garrison of Montreal fir addition to the 23d Fashiers from Montreal the left wing of the 93d Highlanders, now at Toronto, will be stationed at Kingston.

The 83d Regiment (new at London) and the head quarters of the 93d, will form the Garrison of Toronto.

The other Cavalry and Infantry Regiments in this command, will continue to occupy their present quarters; and the various Volunteer Corp (horse and Lor) throughout the different section of the Province, (with the exception of Leatt. Col. Dyer's above 85mded to, are to be maintained, without a subject of the Province, with the exception of Leatt. Col. Dyer's above 85mded to, are to be maintained, without a subject of the Province, with the exception of Leatt. Col. Moverant, Feb. 11th.—Vesterday were also ogent rejoicing, being the anniversary of many in portant epochs in Canadian history, and the day appointed for the celebration of the Birth of the Infant Prince. In the Krenoon, there was a very far procession of the scholars of several schools, who with barmers and music, walked round the city in testimony to the feelings of lovalty inculeated quarter fising generation. The little fellows seemed highly pleased with the part assigned them in the succession of the scholars of several schools, who with barmers and music, walked round the city in testimony to the feelings of lovalty inculeated quarter fishs interesting occasion.

In the afternoon, the fire companies recently or ganized, had a field day, and paraded the streets, in procession, headed by a band of music. The galant. array-passed through many of the principa streets, and by the noss of their evolu as the said line shell remain unpud.

Brocavitus, Feb. 19.—The weather for about a fortnight up to Monday last has been uncommonly mild for the season. On the night of the 4th we had lightning and hunder, and the snow almost all disappeared. It has, however, been cold since Monday, and we have had a slight full of snow and sleighs are again moving, though the roads are bad.

steighs are again moving, though the roads are lad.

At Wallace, N. S. on the let inst. seven person broke through the ice, while assisting to get a horse out. By the immediate assistance of a number of individuals with rapes, planke, Sec., they were all rescued from their perilaus situation: though not before two or three of them were almost exhausted, and had received considerable injury by getting entaugled in the harness under water. While they were being extricated from their perilaus situation, the cries of the persons in the water, and of their friends on the ice, were heart-rendering in the extreme.

Bermuda, January 25.—Arrived on Wednesday last, H.M.S. Pique, Captain Forbes, from Plymonth, from which place she suiled on the 9th of December. There had five cases of small pox occurred on board the Pique during the passage, three of which terminated fatally.—The P. was placed in quarantine on her arrival, but in consequence of no case having appeared since the 12th instant, the Quarantine restrictions have, to a certain extent, been removed.

Pigniting is Vesezuela.—By an arrival at New Orleans, from Kingston, Janusica, late dates from Carthagena bave been received. In consequence of some outrages on British subjects and their property by Carmona, the leader of the revolters, under pretence of enforcing his bleckade, several persons were flogged and taken out to be shot, and several vessels plundered.

The Charybdis brig of war, was ordered to sail from Jamaica to examine into the matter. The news is, that on her arrival at Carthagena she was fired upon by two Carthagenian brigs of war, and several gue hoats, &c. The Charybdis thereupon cast anchor and commenced her defence: and the result of the action was, that two Venezulian ships were sunk, and the Admiral, with a large number of men killed. The Charybdis lost four men killed in the engagement, and was considerably injured in her upper works. her upper works.

The Maxican Schoolers—The armed schooler Liberty, Capt. W. H. Howard, from Now-York, was totally lost on the 21st ult, off Stirrup Keys, in the Bahamas. The crew escaped with their lives. The Liberty was one of the fine schoolers lately built at New-York for the Mexican Nays, and was insured in that city for $24,000.

insured in that city for $34,000.

The Haverbill Gazette says, the wife of Mr. Abi-jah Kelley of that tawn, was found on Thursday last, in the fire-place, quite dead. She had probably fallen while employed about the fire in a state of intoxication. She was first discovered by her daughter, when she was entirely dead, and her head, face-breast and arms were interally roasted. A bottle and timpail, partially filled with run, were found in the room, and she had been seen but a few hours before in a state of intoxication, coming from a neighbouring grog-shop with the tin pail in her hand.

Grocus Dayn, "Grozen, the native whose said.

Gronay Dean.—Grogan, the patriot, whose seizure by the British in Vermont, and imprisonment in Montreal, last fall, caused so much neise, died at Champlein, N. Y., on the 7th of January.

in Montreal. Install, caused so much neise, ded at Champloin, N. Y., on the 7th of January.

'Attempted Issurance row is Posce, P. R.—Capt. Pierce, of schooner Pearl, arrived at Nortolk on Saturday week from Ponce, (P. R.) states that the negroes of that Island contemplated a revolt, which was to have taken place on Christmas night. The intention of the insurrectionists was discovered previous to that night, and a large number of them were shot, and several received two hundred Isshes and sent to the chain galloys for hip, on the day previous to the departure of Capt. Pierce.

As UNNAVURAL ELOPERINT.—The New York Express save, that a young Miss, in her 14th year, from the West, perhaps the richest heiress in the whole West, whose property, too, was in her own right, recently left, that city for Laverpool, with a man aged about 60. The young lady was left by her father at a boarding school, near the city, where the gentleman become acquainted with her, and it is believed that a marriage ceremony was performed before they left.

is believed that a marriage ceremony was performed before they left.

The young lady referred to is Miss Emily Croghan, the daughter of a Mr. Croghan, of one of the western States, who has been an Indian agent in the service of the government.—Her tuncle is the colebrated here of Sandusky, Col. Orroghan, of the U. S. army. Her father is now in Washington, She is the horses at its said, of half a million of dallary? The affair has produced a great excitement in fishioanable circles, and executions are, of course, thrown out at random upon all parties concerned.

DISTRESSING CASE OF DEOWNING.—A young woman, with a child in her arms, fell through a broken place in Craig's bridge. Boston, on Monday week, and both were drowned. Some persons at the Toll House heard her screams, as the unfortunate woman went over into the water, and both were got out with all speed; but the distance of her