St. John.

Now that the evenings are beginning to grow noticeably longer, the afternoon tea and picnic will give place to parties, dances and other indoor evening amusements, and it is course every one will regret the bright summer afternoon which have slipped so swiftly away, leaving only the memory of pleasant lawn parties, picnics and delightful excursions to the cool resorts. Society seems to be crowding a great deal into these, the last of the summer days, and certainly no one can complain of a dull week.

Mrs. Stanley Ritchie gave quite a large progressive card party on evening recently. There were six tables and the games evoked great interest. The ladies prize, a cut glass bottle of perfume in a pretty case was won by Mrs. Geo. K. McLeod and the gentlemen prize, a pack of cards in a leather case, was won by Mr. Warner Harrison. After supper Miss Wilson and Mr. Reed sang several beautiful selections and were accompanied by Mrs. Stratton and Miss Kathleen Furlong. The supper table was tastefully decorated with nasturtiums and looked lovely. Among the guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Geo. K. McLeod, Mr. Gillespie, Mr. McLeod, Mr. R. Jones, Miss Jones, Mr. Burpee, Miss Furlong, Mr. Warner Harrison, Miss Bayard, Mr. Fred Hart, Miss Hagan, Miss Wales, Mr. Edwards, Mr. Rob Ritchie, Mr. Kirkwood, Mr. Carter, Mr. Jack Wetmore.

On Monday evening General Warner took quite a party of friends to Digby on the Prince Rupert. They returned in the evening after an exceptionally pleasant trip.

Society sports itself in various ways and perhaps not the least enjoyable are the barn dances, of which several have been given at Rotheray this season the last of them being held on Saturday evening. The bride Mrs. Taylor added considerably to the general pleasure by her splendid singing. Miss Dora Armstrong played her accompaniments.

Quite a large party left Fredericton Tuesday morning for Grand Falls. They had several Indians with them and will return to Fredericton in canoes. The party included Judge Forbes, Mr. Forbes, St. John, Miss Daniel, Mr. Haven, Dr. and Mrs. Fredericson, and Mr. Frank Smith of Boston, and Miss Eixford of Scotland.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Lee Harrison and Mr. Harry Thorne gave a river party in the yacht "Dream". They left the city about three o'clock and sailed up to "Divide Rock," beyond the island and on their return went up the Kennedys to Rotheray. A delicious supper was served on board; and during the afternoon fruits, claret cup and candy were served; when the party returned at half past seven they had a merry car ride around the city. The party included Mr. James Harrison, Mr. Harry Thorne, Mrs. Lee Harrison, and Mrs. Charles Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Kestor, Mrs. Holden, Miss Bayard, Miss Lillie Harrison, Misses Furlong, Miss Albion, Mr. Kirkwood, Mr. Berle Harrison, Misses Warren, Mr. Jack Warner, Mr. Warner, Mr. Harcourt, Mr. Tilley, Mr. Went Winslow, Mr. Bert Gordon.
