WILD RUNAWAY DOWN THE MOUNTAIN SIDE

Valuable Horse Killed and Driver Stunned When Load Slipped Forward—Indian Babe Born in Wigwam,

Albert, Feb. 25.—A little daughter came a day or two ago to the wigwam home of Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Allen. Their camp is located on the old Caledonia Road, near Riverside, and despite the cold weather the Indian home is cozy and warm. Much interest has been taken in the arrival of the little Indian girl by the citizens of the village, and kindly lady friends anticipated the requirements of mother and baby. Dr. S. C. Murray was the attending physician, and reports his patients doing well.

Clyde Newcomb, son of Albert Newcomb, while driving his father's team, logging on the side of Sheepdy Mountain, Thursday, had the misfortune, through the slipping of his load forward, to lose control of his team. A wild runaway down the mountain side followed. A projecting log struck a tree in passing, causing the wrapping chains to break, and the driver and flying logs, was hurled from his load and rendered unconscious, but miraculously escaped serious injury. On regaining consciousness he found himself lying at some distance from the log road; and not being sufficiently recovered to remember where he was, or that he had a team in the woods, he groped his way back into the woods where he was found by the chopping crew who went in search of the team. The horses were found at the bottom of the ravine, one of them had escaped injury, the other was terribly injured, and was killed to end her suffering.

Several cases of typhoid are under treatment at Harvey. Two children Robert Tipping's sons are being attended by Dr. Atkinson, while John Brewster, son of Joseph Brewster, Albert's son, is suffering from an illness caused her many friends much anxiety, is convalescing under the skillful treatment of Dr. Baxter.

Miss Gladys Baxter, who has been visiting her uncle here, has returned to her home in St. John.

The estate sale of Job Stiles' personal property, has been postponed by the assignee to March 11, at 10 a. m.

Joseph Bishop, of Harvey Bank, who spent some eight weeks in Boston, has returned home and is preparing to carry on the work of his large farm.

Isaac C. Prescott, and George D. Prescott, M. P. P., returned from a trip to New Mills yesterday, where they have been looking after their large lumber interests.

William M. Calhoun, has invested in a large importation of valuable poultry. Mr. Calhoun will place upon a farm lately purchased by him, half a mile from Albert, first-class buildings and equipment for poultry raising on a large scale. A practical poultry expert from Scotland will have charge of the business.

Allen Peck, of Hopewell Cape, is visiting his brother, R. C. Peck.

Large quantities of excellent ice have been cut and stored during the last two weeks by citizens of Albert and Riverside. The cutting was made at Prescott's Mill Pond.
