HARVARD
PRINCETON

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 11.—Harvard's football eleven, ranked from the dust by Percy D. Houghton, defeated Princeton three to nothing here this afternoon and loomed again in the all-conquering squad of the east big three of 1916. It was Princeton's first defeat of the year and it was in no wise humiliating. One could hardly say that Princeton was outplayed with the exception of the single instance when Harvard recovered the ball on the Princeton twenty yard line and drove down drop kicked the ball over the Princeton goal post for the three points that spelled victory. Close to 40,000 people witnessed the game.

Dance at St. Andrew's Rink.

The officers and men of the 22nd Battalion certainly made a fine impression during their stay in St. John and it is a matter of regret that their stay was so short. This regret was generally felt, but it was increased after the very pleasant informal dance given on Saturday evening at St. Andrew's Rink by the N. C. O.'s and men of the battalion. This dance gave an opportunity to meet the men and a delightful time was spent by the officers and men of the battalion. The ladies present were members of nearly all the patriotic societies of the city and the Red Cross circles of the churches. Officers of 180th, the Kilburn, and the Garrison artillery were also guests. Colonel Lightfoot, Major Moss, Major Prudhomme, Captain Kennedy and other officers of the 22nd formed a reception committee. The executive of the Soldiers' Club with Mrs. G. A. Kuhling as convener served refreshments from a booth decorated with flags. Members of the societies connected with the Soldiers' Club assisted in the serving.

A feature of the evening was the grand march which took place after the seventh dance. The band played a spirited march and at intervals the drums beat a measured time. There were two large circles formed and the whole effect was very fine.

ST. LUKE'S HONORS
ITS VALIANT DEAD

Rev. R. P. McKim Delivers Eloquent Sermon at Largely Attended Memorial Service Last Evening.

Rev. R. P. McKim paid an eloquent tribute last night to four members of St. Luke's Anglican church who had made the supreme sacrifice on the field of honor. These four men were Wm. Ramsey and W. J. Seymour of the 26th Battalion, James James of the Royal Imperial Regiment, and Charles E. McLaughlin of the 42nd Highlanders.

Rev. Mr. McKim took his text from Ecclesiastes 8: "There is no discharge in that war," and said in part: "There has been no period in the history of the world when nations were not fighting one another. We are now looking on at the greatest war the world has ever seen. These men and their comrades were fighting for a principle that was dearer to them than life itself."

In answering the question "Why is war allowed in this world?" he said: "We have war for the one reason that we have wrong and until wrong is eradicated from the world we will have war."

He said further: "Our flag tells us that we need never suffer a defeat and the message brought back from our men at the front is not defeat, but victory."

At the close of the regular service an impressive communal service was held, the bugle band of the 16th Battalion assisting. When the rector had concluded the reading of the service for the dead the "Dead March from Saul" was given by the organ and drums, after which the "Last Post" was sounded by the buglers. Two officers of St. Luke's Cadets also assisted in the service.

The 16th bugle band were guests of the rector at supper before the service commenced.

COMMERCIAL MEN TO AID PATRIOTIC FUND

Action Taken at Important Meeting Held in This City Saturday Night—Travellers Undertake to Raise $10,000

Alive to the fact that the expenditure of the Patriotic Fund is much more than the amount that has already been subscribed and that a deficit of no small amount faces the populace of this province, the commercial travelers of the city of St. John called a special meeting of the travelers residing in the province on Saturday night. A representative gathering of the commercial men were present. After calling the meeting to order, the chairman, James Prichard, announced to those present that it was open for any of the men to offer a suggestion regarding the ways and means whereby the Patriotic Fund might be appreciably augmented for the coming year.

After several suggestions had been made it was finally decided that the commercial travelers of the province should raise and contribute to the Patriotic Fund the sum of $10,000.

According to commercial statistics there are about 500 travelers in this province. In St. John there are over three hundred and fifty "Knights of the Grip" who are only too glad to be able to assist the dependents of those who are fighting in the shell-torn forests and the bloody fields of Europe for the preservation of the British constitution.

An organization to be known as the New Brunswick Travelers' Patriotic Club was the outcome of Saturday night's meeting. It was decided that only residential commercial travelers of this province are eligible for membership. On being accepted the applicant will be required to pay an admission fee of $20. This will admit them to the club without further obligation. Presuming that the 500 men in the province join the club the amount estimated for the donation, viz.: $10,000 will be realized.

As the present season is a rush one with the commercial men it was decided that a meeting be held Dec. 1. In the interim the members present were instructed to propagate the suggestion made at the meeting and to report back to the provisional officers, consisting of W. A. Stewart, president; Daniel McKinney, vice-president; and W. J. Wetmore, secretary-treasurer, at the next meeting. A financial board consisting of ten members to be appointed will look after the collection of the fees.

There is no doubt, but that the commercial men residing throughout the province will, realizing the dire need of money for the Patriotic Fund, take a deep interest in the work of the organization and show their appreciation like they have done on many occasions since the outbreak of the war and give their hearty support to the New Brunswick Commercial Travelers' Patriotic Club.

Belgians are Starving
While Canadians Have Plenty

Our Heroic Allies Deserve More Help than We are Giving

An accident of geography, and the fortunes of war, have subjected Belgium to the cold-blooded, calculated cruelty and attempted starvation of the German conquerors—while we in Canada, secure from danger, are making money out of the War.

Legitimate though our profits are, we surely owe a substantial share of them to our Allies, who are destitute because they dared stand up for their rights and defy the enemy.

We have given much—but barely enough to help keep the Belgians alive. More of them every week are calling for help, as their own resources are exhausted, and every one of the millions should have something more than the three slices of bread and the pint of soup which is all the Relief Commission can supply out of present contributions.

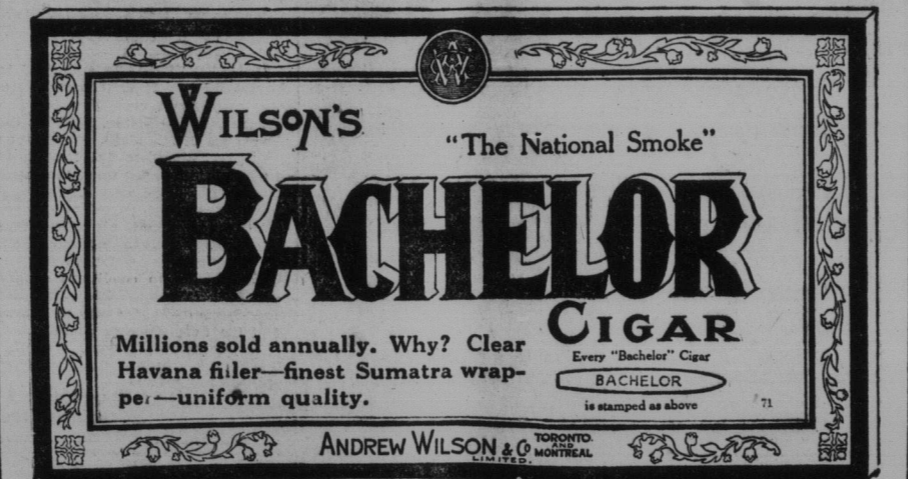

If you have been helping, do more if you can till the war is over and Belgium is free. If you have not given yet, will you make up for lost time with a substantial contribution? Better still, will you give, every month, enough to feed one or more Belgian families, at the rate of $2.50 each per month?

Whatever you can afford to give, send your subscription weekly, monthly, or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or
