The baby who is always plump, always has a good appetite, always has a clear eye and a rosy cheek and is always active and playful is the choicest treasure this life affords. The medicine which keeps babies in such a condition or which restores them to it when they are ill is certainly a priceless boon to humanity. There are many medicines which produce sleep but their action upon the child is similar to that which whiskey or opium has upon a full grown man. They deaden and stupefy and are the most injurious thing which can be given to children. The only safe course is to use Nature's own remedies. Nature has provided a vegetable cure for every ill and her remedies for children's disorders are found scientifically compounded in Dr. Williams' prescription, Baby's Own Tablets.

FOR DIARRHŒA,

constipation, colic, fever, croup, irritation when teething, indigestion, sleeplessness and all the childish disorders so familiar to mothers this remedy is conceded by the medical profession to be without an equal. In hundreds and thousands of homes this remedy is used to the exclusion of all others. Its effect is gentle and soothing, promptly curative and never failing. It should have a place of honor in every home where there are children and it will prove its worth many times over. It will save pain, anxiety, doctors' bills and perhaps a life.

You will find Baby's Own Tablets at all druggists or they will send direct to any address postpaid upon receipt of the price, 25 cents, per box.

Surprising Results.

A Simple Internal Remedy Makes Remarkable Cures of Catarrh. People who have used Sybarin, salve and washes for catarrh and have found no relief and inconvenient they will be greatly surprised at results following the use of a pleasant, internal remedy in tablet form, druggists everywhere admit that it is a pleasant, internal remedy, which sells at 10 cents for full sized treatment in the most effective and popular of all catarrh remedies.

Nearly all cheap cough mixtures and throat lozenges contain opiates; these cheap remedies give a temporary relief, especially in the case of children, by depressing the nervous system, but they do not remove the cause but by depressing the nervous system they render the coughing more violent and more persistent, and it is still there and will promptly return.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the best remedy to remove catarrhal secretions, whether in the nose, throat or stomach because they are composed of wholesome antiseptics blood purifiers, and free from opium. You can be sure of the genuineness of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets by the fact that they are made in the United States and are sold in every country. When you use these tablets you know what you are getting into your system and not taking chances with cocaine, opiate or similar poisons found in so many catarrh cures and cough medicines.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially valuable for catarrh of the children because they are pleasant to use and may be used freely to break up severe colds and croup at the very beginning.

To cure a cold in a night—use Vapo-Cresolene. It has been used extensively during more than twenty-four years. A Dime a Dozen.

IMPOSING FUNERAL OF CECIL RHODES.

Cape Town Streets Lined With Troops; Matabele Swarm to See Last Scenes.

Cape Town, April 3.—A stream of people passed by the coffin of Cecil Rhodes in the Assembly House today, and the funeral this afternoon was imposing. The streets were lined with troops. The pallbearers were Dr. Jamieson, the premier of the colony and six others. The chief mourner was Col. Frank Rhodes, who walked bereaved and alone, followed by the other brothers of the deceased and representatives of Lord Milner, the British agent, and other officials. The funeral was held in the Assembly House, which had been converted into a chapel of arms. The family, the executors of the will and others accompanied the body to Rhodesdale.

LESS GRAIN GOING FROM BOSTON.

Hay Receipts and Shipments Phenomenally Large—All from Canada. Boston, April 3.—Compared with the first three months of last year, grain exports from the port of Boston since the first of January have fallen off greatly. In fact, there is a difference of 5,000,000 bushels, in round numbers, favoring the shipments of 1901. Wheat has held up its end with 4,570,718 bushels this year, against 9,583,511 for a corresponding period last year; only 304,702 bushels of corn, however, has been sent abroad in the last three months, whereas in a corresponding period in 1901 the amount was 4,657,601 bushels. Oats figure 4,899 bushels this year, against 1,561,491. The same story holds true of grain receipts. Hay shows a corresponding increase. Last year for a corresponding period the figures were 44,836 bales. The receipts of hay—all from Canada—have reached the enormous total of 953,389 bales, of which 885,760 were for export.

THE "DROP-OFF" HEART

Doctors didn't give Mrs. James long to live—but Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart foiled them and cured her. For fifteen years Mrs. John A. James, of Warrington, Ont., was a great sufferer from Heart Disease. For days at a time she was confined to bed, and she said as though every breath might be her last. Her physicians said that she had "drop off" any minute. With woman's tenacity in suffering, and believing that "while there's life there's hope," she started using Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. Three bottles cured her. This remedy relieves in thirty minutes. 75 Cents per B. W. Padlock.

HEAD-ACHES and HAND SHAKES

Some imagine that because they are not cured of their hand shakes that the head or hand is the seat of the trouble. Ninety-nine times in a hundred you could trace them as unmistakable symptoms that the kidneys are in revolt.

Reception by St. John's Lodge, A. F. and A. M., at Masonic Hall.

A LARGE GATHERING. More Than 500 Spent the Evening Most Pleasantly in the Beautifully Decorated Rooms.

Wednesday beheld the second function of St. John Lodge centennial celebration—the reception to the ladies. The scene was an unusually brilliant one, and will probably remain in the minds of those who participated through life, as one of the most pleasing features of the centennial year.

The rooms were most beautifully decorated and lighted and in the densely thronged ball room the lights shone on a brilliant scene. The grand hosts, doing all in their power for the enjoyment of their guests, wore a specially prepared gold medal, in commemoration of the centennial. These medals, which are in the shape of a shield, are very pretty, and bear in the center the figure of St. John and the figures 1802-1902, while around this figure are words designating its purpose. The members of the lodge will ask permission of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick to wear these medals with the Masonic regalia at all their functions.

The Scottish Rite rooms were used as dressing rooms, while the musical programme was given in the lodge room, and the chapter room was fitted as the ball room. The refreshments were served in the library and armory. All the rooms were very tastefully decorated, but the ball room was beautiful. The ceiling, representing the canopy of heaven, was formed of blue bunting, spangled with stars, and gracefully drooping from the sides and caught up in the centre by the circle of a large blazing light of jeweled cut glass, inside which small electric globe shone dazzlingly. From the circle of the chandelier chains of glass hung and were fastened again to the ceiling then hung again with large globes attached.

On entering the room one's eye was attracted by the decorations at the farther end, which represented in miniature a lodge room with ionic and corinthian pillars and mosaic floor. On a mantle-piece, upheld by three pillars, was an oiling screen of many-colored stained glass, on which, in plain glass, the word "welcome" was executed, while around the edge and behind the screen were lights producing an excellent effect. Resting on this screen at the centre was a square mirror, with the inscription "St. John's Lodge," done in colored glass work. To the right and left of this mirror were two Masonic pillars bearing globes. On top and at the corners of the screen were lights producing an excellent effect.
