

SAN FRANCISCO DOGS ARE RAVING

Temporary Shelters to House 40,000 Homeless Are Being Erected in the Park

Coroner Estimates That the Death List Will Reach 1,000 and Likely More--Starving Dogs Have Been Devouring Human Bodies Buried in the Ruins--City Officials Resist President's Recommendation That Funds Should Be Taken Out of Their Hands for Distribution--President Hears That Chinese Are Not Being Cared For, Hence His Action.

San Francisco, April 24--This was the seventh day since the earthquake jarred the city so severely and started the fires that laid it in ashes, and as preceding days, Tuesday took up the accumulated impetus of Monday and added much volume of force of its own, so that Wednesday will dawn on a situation that is a long way towards the normal.

Such marks of trade as remain unburned were opening for the street railways were being run up for the accommodation of others, clearing of the devastated areas of its ruins was under way, the inquiry into the condition of the bank vaults was completed, and the organization and preparation for service of the street railways were so far advanced that the company expressed its readiness to resume business as soon as the mayor would permit. The water company announced the completion of such repairs as would enable it to supply 12,000,000 gallons daily. In fine, there was all the evidence that put at rest now and forever the fears of those who predicted that San Francisco would never rise again.

The citizens had done so splendidly in the face of such an appalling catastrophe that some slight consolation was created this morning when President Roosevelt's proclamation was read, turning over to Dr. Edward Devine, of the National Red Cross, the management of relief measures and the distribution of the great funds so generously appropriated by congress. This feeling also was evinced because of the president's recommendation that the people of the United States that their contributions of food and supplies and money should be diverted into the same hands.

Resent Roosevelt's Action.

If there was a momentary feeling that the men who had endured the heat and the burden of the day were being unfairly treated by this diversion of authority into new and foreign territory, it was soon dispelled. At a conference at Fort Mason attended by General Greely and Punnett, Mayor Schmitz, Governor Pardee, Dr. Devine and some others, it was agreed that this was the case, and that Dr. Devine himself should frame a telegram to the president informing him of the splendid work already done and of his perfect willingness to assist in forwarding the measures already under way.

What hurt even more than this was the suggestion made in the telegram from President Roosevelt to Secretary of War Taft that reports had reached him that less charity was being shown the Chinese, who dwell here, than the whites, and directing that if this be true the situation should be remedied at once. If the people of San Francisco are not in love with the Chinese, it was felt that the name they had earned in the past for charity and open-heartedness should have saved them from any suggestion of having permitted any human being--white, black or yellow--within their reach to suffer.

Mature reflections, however, brought the conviction that the truth had not reached the president and a special message was sent him signed by the constituted authorities recounting the exact facts.

The work of housing and feeding the homeless and of reconstituting the sanitary conditions, already far advanced Monday, was carried on with tremendous energy. It is certain that no one is hungry in San Francisco tonight, unless he is willfully so.

There is food for all, and the method of distribution has been so perfected that it is within reach of all.

As for the health and sanitary conditions there is, however, one circumstance, nothing to be desired. An investigation of the sewers has shown that they were not so badly damaged as was feared, and while there were breaks, they have been repaired. There has been no outbreak of disease of a contagious character in any form, and as the health and sanitary conditions are being improved, it is expected to be prevalent in such a crisis, they are chiefly notable by their absence. The hospitals, which in the first instances were crowded by great numbers, are discharging their patients by the score.

"Death List Will Reach 1,000 or More."

San Francisco, April 24--Coroner Walsh said:

"Bodies that the deputy coroners have found and buried number 300 as follows: At Polk and Bay streets, 32, at Portsmouth square, 27, at Washington square, 12; at the Six Mile House, 20; at Laurel Hill, 23; scattered in different parts of the city, 10. No thorough search has been made of the district south of Market or the Chinese quarter.

"Many lives must have been lost in these sections. South of Market street are the cheap lodging houses and many of these collapsed during the earthquake. There is little chance that half of the inmates of collapsed buildings had opportunity to escape. This also is true of Chinatown.

"Shortly after the earthquake, soldiers and police, as I have been told, buried bodies along the waterfront. I have received no official report of these. The total number of dead will undoubtedly reach, if it does not exceed, 1,000."

Dogs Eating Human Bodies.

San Francisco, April 24--One of the gruesome scenes that has followed the fire was that witnessed on Telegraph hill and Russian hill, and along the entire north beach of the city this morning, when scores of half-starved dogs were found eating human bodies. The animals were discovered gnawing and tearing at the corpses half buried under the ruins. Blue jackets were at once detailed to cover the sections designated and kill all dogs found.

Further search will be made of these sections to obtain the bodies and bury them as soon as possible.

Empress Dowager of China Gives $50,000.

Pekin, April 24--The empress dowager has sent to the American legation a check for $50,000 for the relief of the sufferers from the disaster at San Francisco, and is sending $30,000 to the Chinese in that city.

All Money Looks Alike to Them.

New York, April 24--The California Club of Women, in executive session today in the Waldorf Astoria, decided to accept donations from foreigners in opposition to the stand taken by President Roosevelt. A resolution was unanimously adopted, reading in part as follows: "Whereas the relief of the donations of the Hamburg-American line and others in aid of the California sufferers by President Roosevelt has caused much adverse comment; and while recognizing the grounds upon which the refusal was based, namely, that America, as amply able to take care of the situation, to be abjectly correct, nevertheless, we hold that the denial of the right to contribute on the ground of nationality is wrong, harmful, and without precedent.

"The general relief funds continue to expand today. The total of the New York Chamber of Commerce fund tonight was $724,264. The committee of the New York mayor's fund has nearly reached $800,000. The Merchants Association fund stands at $148,630. The Jockey Club today contributed $25,000.

Massachusetts Relief Fund Grows.

Boston, April 24--The efforts of the Massachusetts relief committee for California were directed today toward starting a list of names of persons, clothing and other necessities which it is hoped will continue to flow from this city across the continent for some time to come. A carload, another consignment of stoves, a car of bedding, and a car laden with miscellaneous merchandise left for the coast during the day, and other consignments will follow tomorrow.

The Massachusetts relief fund was only a few thousand short of half a million dollars when the tabulation closed tonight, $493,266 to be exact, and reports of action by many towns make it evident that the amount will exceed $500,000 by tomorrow night.

This sum does not include the money subscribed by many of the fraternal orders or individual contributions sent direct to San Francisco, such as the hundred thousand dollar donation by A. C. Burrage of this city.

Soldiers Too Official.

San Francisco, April 24--Chief of Police Dineen announced today that reports of clashes between police and National Guardsmen were greatly exaggerated. The officers of the department are taking their regular details from the captains of their respective companies and are doing patrol duty in conjunction with the regulars.

"As far as the police department is concerned," said Chief Dineen, "we have endeavored to co-operate with the regulars in preserving order. We have had no clash with militiamen or the citizens' patrol but there have been numerous complaints of the over-zealousness of the guardmen by citizens and for that reason we have deemed it advisable to request the withdrawal of all bodies of troops not acting under the direct command of General Funston."

CAUGHT 27-POUND TROUT

Leonia, N. H., April 22--Lewis S. Pierce, of this city, captured a lake trout weighing 27 pounds while trolling in Lake Panguis yesterday. Mr. Pierce was using a small line and a light steel rod, and he had a lively fight with the trout for more than twenty minutes, before he succeeded in getting it subdued and beside the launch. Clayton V. Stanley, who was with Mr. Pierce attempted to take the trout into the launch with a dip net, but the net proved too small. The two men then drenched the fish by the gills on either side and lifted it on board. The trout is three feet in length.

San Francisco, April 24--(Special)--In the house today Hon. W. S. Fielding said that the privy councillors who were paid annuities under the act of last session were as follows:

Sir Hector Langevin, $2,446; Sir Charles Tupper, $2,725; Sir Mackenzie Bowell, $2,446; Sir John Carling, $2,446; Sir Herbert Tupper, $2,154; Hon. John Costigan, $2,446; Hon. John Haggart, $2,446; Hon. H. B. Tarte, $2,154; Hon. Alex. H. Foster, $2,446; Hon. A. G. Blair, $2,446; Hon. Clifford Sifton, $2,446.

Sir Herbert Tupper and Mr. Tarte were paid up to the end of February and the others to the end of March.

Mr. Monk moved the second reading of a bill to permit Montreal saloon-keepers to contract to masters and mates of vessels accepted the clause providing that Canadian certificates shall issue to none but British subjects.

Ottawa, April 24--(Special)--The debate was resumed in the house today on the amendment of the North Atlantic Trading Company's contract with the government by Mr. Pencher.

Mr. Monk was the first speaker. He maintained that the contract was a swindle, perpetrated by some clever schemer. Information was withheld from the opposition and it was not until a few days ago that a message from Lord Strathcona showed that it was a plan of the company from the public. In consequence, he said that the time had arrived when a change was needed in Canada's navigation policy. The bonus system (and he pointed to the names of those who negotiated the contract) were purposed to be a means of getting under the influence of Mr. Foster. They were a happy family until they got into his hands. When he began to manipulate affairs they had to go to law to get their rights.

Conservative Politicians in a Lawsuit.

The statement of the claim set forth that Leturkey, Bennett, Pencher, Pope and Fowler, all except Pencher, Conservative members of parliament, formed themselves into a syndicate to locate, buy and sell lands in the Northwest, and the three plaintiffs, Bennett, Leturkey and Pencher, contributed one-fifth each of the preliminary expenses to the defendants, Pope and Fowler, in connection with the selection of lands and making contracts for purchase. That syndicate was to be composed of ten persons, with equal interests, but only five joined. Defendants, Pope and Fowler, made a contract with the C. P. R. to buy 200,000 acres of C. P. R. lands and called upon Leturkey, Bennett and Pencher to contribute the amounts assigned against them which was paid. Then Pope and Pencher sold part of the lands acquired to the New Ontario Farm and Town Sites Syndicate, Limited, and that company made a contract for a sale of 202,000 acres to the Great West Land Company. The plaintiffs contend that the syndicate was entitled to receive from the Great West Land Company the amount of that company amounting to $320 per acre and a large sum in cash. Plaintiffs claim one-fifth each of the stock in the company but defendants, Pope and Fowler, claim seventy-tenths of the stock and have received from the Great West Land Company on account of said sale $30,484 and have assumed to retain for commission one-fifth of the net sale $20,000 and also assumed to retain seven-tenths of the remainder of the money divisible among the members of the syndicate.

Pope and Fowler are only entitled to one-fifth share each in the transaction and they ask an accounting and the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of the company.

In the statement of the defence, Pope and Fowler claim they obtained land from the C. P. R. "by their own exertions," but what was the nature of the exertions which enabled them to get land at $3 per acre less than market price? They stated that the defendants also claim that the plaintiffs have not contributed any money and that the land was purchased at $25 per acre.

Mr. Ross pointed out that the plaintiffs only claim to have contributed $200 each and had no trouble in getting option for that amount on two hundred acres of land. Presumably Fowler and Pope each contributed a like amount, but under the manipulation of Mr. Foster they received 200,000 acres of land and had to his company at a profit of $1 per acre.

One would have thought, said Mr. Ross, that there would have been enough money round, but no, as Foster was always mixed up with a nest of traitors. Foster would not divide up but wanted to squeeze out two neophytes who could not get up the same class with himself, Montague, Birmingham and others. The chickens with Foster hatched in 1886 were coming home to roost.

Mr. Northrup (East Hastings), Mr. Bole (Winnipeg), and Mr. Purley (Argentia) followed. Mr. Crawford (Fortage), Manitoba, moved the adjournment of the debate.

At the Age of Fifty-nine Charles L. Stewart Awaits Sentence in an Iowa Court

HELPED BURY CUSTER'S DEAD

Aided in the Rescue of Two White Girl Captives in Regular Dime Novel Style--A Canadian by Birth.

A Council Bluffs, Iowa, despatch says: At the age of fifty-nine Charles L. Stewart, former government scout, Indian fighter, miner, guide, who helped to bury the dead after the Custer massacre, was sentenced to a year's imprisonment for a petty forgery committed in the city. Stewart had had an eventful career, beginning in 1870 when he entered the service of the United States as a scout at Leavenworth (Kan.). He says that this is the first time he has fallen into criminal hands. He has pleaded guilty to forging the name of a local firm to a check for $20, which he failed to cash. Sentence has been passed on Stewart. When the Custer massacre occurred, in the early summer of 1876, Stewart with a party of twelve other scouts was on his way to Fort Lincoln. He has pleaded guilty to forging the name of a local firm to a check for $20, which he failed to cash. Sentence has been passed on Stewart. When the Custer massacre occurred, in the early summer of 1876, Stewart with a party of twelve other scouts was on his way to Fort Lincoln.
