FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

THE BORDER TOWNS.

St. Stephen, June 19.—The St. Croix towns have been rather gay during the past week. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Albert E. Neill and Mrs. Haycock gave a most delightful bridge whist party at the home of Mrs. Paine in Calais. There were teen tables. The prizes were won by Mrs. George H. Eaton and Miss Smith. They were most novel prizes, lovely scarfs of tulle embroidered in colors and made by one of the hostesses, Mrs. Neill, who is most talented in the way of dainty needle work. The house was prettily decorated with flowers and as the day was one of the few summer days we have had, the guests were all in dainty summer toilettes. The hours of the party were from 4 until 6 o'clock.

On Thursday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock, Mrs. David Aume Bates was the hostess to a most enjoyable "at home." The house was most artistically adorned with apple blossoms, jonquils, tulips and other flowers. There were a large number of ladies present. Mrs. Bates was assisted in entertaining by several of her young lady friends—Misses Gretchen Vroom, Margaret Black, Margarie Baskin, Lelia Grant, Edith Deinstadt and Alma Sullivan—who served the guests with ices, punch and other refreshments.

Mrs. A. Edwin Vessey on Saturday afternoon gave a bridge party at her home in honor of her guest, Mrs. Thomas, of Sussex. There were some fifty guests and the afternoon was one of the most delightful spent for some time. The very handsome prizes were won by Mrs. Gilbert W. Ganong and Miss Georgie Eliott. At 6 o'clock a dainty supper was served.

John Boyle, of James Boyle & Sons, took his life this morning by shooting himself through the head with a revolver while in bed at the home of his father, in King street. Nobody was present at the time he committed the fatal deed, but before he died friends did their best to save his life. Death was almost instantaneous. The first that anybody knew of the sad tragedy was when his aunt, who was down stairs in the house, heard a sound similar to that of a person vomiting. She hurried up stairs, and the first intimation she had of the seriousness of the situation was when she saw blood spurting from the mouth of the unfortunate man. Before the next person could arrive from down stairs, Mr. Boyle was dead.

Mr. Boyle was born on July 4, 1860. He is survived by his father, two sisters, Mrs. Minnehan, of St. John, and Miss Annie, at home, and three brothers, Charles, Vincent and Samuel, all at home.

Coroner McNally held an inquest this evening. Four witnesses were examined, and the jury's verdict was that he came to his death by his own hand while temporarily deranged. The witnesses examined were Vincent Boyle, Miss Boyle, brother and sister of deceased; Dr. Irvine and Dr. McGrath. The evidence went to show that Boyle had sustained a fall from a wagon a short time ago, striking heavily upon his head, and it is believed this injury deranged him. The jurors were Frank Smith, J. D. Perkins, F. H. Morris, Murray Rowan, James Pringle, Peter Farrell and Hedley Vanwart.

Fredericton, N. B., June 23—One of the largest processions of its kind ever seen in Fredericton took place this afternoon, when Hiram Lodge of Free Masons held their annual service at St. Ann's church. The Royal Arch Chapter marched with the Blue Lodge and the Fredericton Brass Band headed the parade.

Canon Cowie, chaplain of the lodge, conducted a special service at the church. Prof. Cadwalter presided at the organ, accompanied by a double male quartette.

An eloquent sermon, appropriate to the occasion, was delivered by Canon Cowie, taking his text from 77 Psalms, 11 and 12 verses. In spite of the warm weather, a large number of spectators lined the streets through which the procession passed.

The thermometer here today registered eighty-nine in the shade, the warmest day so far this season here.
