Calendar, Aspects, &c.
 Opens with cold blasts from the North-West. Chattering Easterly and prospect of heavy downfall of snow in the East. Still in the West the winter has not set in.

2nd Sunday in Advent.
 Generally cold and frosty. Pleasant for the season. Changeable and gloomy. Rain or snow. Snow and cold. Rather severe for the season.

3rd Sunday in Advent.
 Wintry blasts. The cold has increased by several degrees, but about now the weather will be very changeable. Decidedly settling for hard frost.

4th Sunday in Advent.
 21st. St. Thomas' Day. REMEMBER THE POOR. The day is dull and cold. CHRISTMAS DAY. Morn. St. Stephens' Day. St. John the Evangelist.

1st Sunday after Christmas.
 Cold with high winds. Continues cold and blustering. Hard frost and stormy.

WHAT plant does a London omnibus remind one of? A "creeping" Jenny.

CINCINNATI misses reject offers by the expressive words, "Shoo Fly."

CONNECTICUT has a man who has been a Freemason for seventy-two years.

I'm afraid you don't like babies when they cry," said a matron to a gentleman, as he tried to sooth the darling to her arms. "Oh, yes," said he, "I like them best when they cry, because I've always observed that when they cry they are invariably carried out of the room."

A box containing a black bear was received at an express office in San Francisco the other day. Outside was this inscription: "Black Bear. If yew don't want to get bit, kepe your fingers outen the crax."

BOARD OF TRADE.—Deal.

SUNDAY OUT.—Betsey: "Shall you be a-goin out this afternoon, mem?"

Mistress: "I thing not, Betsey."

Betsey: "'Cos yer can if yer like. I don't want to go out."

"You say the deceased settled here. What do you mean by settled?"

"Well, he was born here, got married here, and they buried him here, and if that wasn't settling him, then I'm no judge."
