

Punch says—and who would want better authority—the reason I do not so apt to see their names spelled, is because they receive such a vast number of "evil communications."

THE spotting of a gig was the occasion of a Washington being born in the United States on the 15th of May in 1861. A well led to the discovery of the "Washington" and a blunder in the spelling of the name resulted in the discovery of the name of the gig.

"Now, gentlemen," said a nobleman to his guests, as the ladies left the room, "let us understand each other; are we to drink like men or like beasts?" The guests, somewhat indignant, exclaimed "like men!" "Then," he replied, "we are going to get jolly drunk for once in our lives, and we want."

Look at this—Were we to ask a hundred men who from small beginnings have attained a condition of respectability and influence, to what they imputed their success in life, the general answer would be, "It was from being early compelled to think for and depend on ourselves."

Ten negroes were arrested at Louisville, Kentucky, last night, while engaged in a military drill.

The Jesuit College in Georgetown, Md., has been placed at the disposal of the New York Sixth Army regiment for quarters.

Gen. Scott will be 76 years old on the 1st of June, 1861.
