On the other hand Walker held Kitchener to eight hits and Andy Kyle secured half of these. Lefty field, hit the ball over the dyke for a mer in the fifth inning, preventing a eighth inning when he blew up com-pletely, enabling the home team to ake the circuit four times before the third out was registered.

Rose will probably be used against the Sox today and with Gilbert slated for duty tomorrow, the Beavers will make a bold bid for the remaining rames of the series.

A Brantford despatch gives the following account of the game: Brantford June 23—Brantford had the breaks in the first game of the series with Kitchener here today and cinched the score by putting across four runs in the eight inning. In this round two infield hits, coupled with a squeeze play, pulled by Murphy and Camerou with hits by Cully and Extelle, made a strong Brantford rally. Walker pitched fine ball and had two double players behind him. The fine all-round work of Cully the new Brantford third baser was a feature of the Pitcher Gero who worked for Ham-ilton on Saturday against the Beav-ers has been traded by London who still held a string on his services to the Bay City elub. In return Lon-don receives three players.

London fans are backing up their team in fine shape. Yesterday's twilight fixture against the Shagmen drew about 1000 fans, although the home team received another trimming 8-3.

Dusty Bullock who played third base for Berlin in the days of the Canadian League has been dug up by Dad Stewart to help bolster upth e Tecumseh infield. Dusty has been living in St. Thomas.

Dick Wade had a great day in the field in Brantford, accepting nine chances without a miss. He did not figure in the hit column but reached first on an error and managed to purloin a sack.

Witry estcher for the Red Sox in 29 games this season, has been re-leased to London. Stewart is trying to build up an entirely new team.

Kitchener has about as good a ball park as will be found on the circuit and when the club gets the new stand completed it will not have to take back water from anyone in the matter of accommodation. The attendance at the twilight games is good, over 800 being in attandance last night and they expect close to 3,000 for the half-holiday game this afternoon.—Hamilton Spectator.
