

NATIONAL EMIGRATION AID SOCIETY,

Being a Revival and Re-construction of the "NATIONAL COLONIAL EMIGRATION SOCIETY," formed in 1862.

President.

HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF MANCHESTER.

Supported by Sixty-three Members of Council, of whom Ten are Members of Parliament, and assisted by an Executive Committee.

Honorary Treasurer.
MR. H. BARNETT, M.P.

Honorary Secretary.
MR. J. BATE.

Bankers.

Messrs. BARNETTS, HOARES, HANBURY, & CO., 60 and 62, Lombard Street, E.C.
Messrs. HERRIES, FARQUHAR, & Co., 16, St. James Street, S.W.

OBJECTS OF THE NATIONAL EMIGRATION AID SOCIETY.

1. To promote Emigration from those districts of the Metropolis and of the Provinces where distress abounds through want of employment.
 2. To urge, by various agencies, upon the Home Government, the consideration of a NATIONAL EMIGRATION POLICY, IN CO-OPERATION WITH THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE COLONIES.
 3. To assist Persons and Families desirous of emigrating, with advances (whenever the Funds of the Society permit) towards their passage and outfit.
 4. To afford advice and information to intending Emigrants and others, and to make arrangements for their passage.
 5. To arrange for the transmission of Emigrants, and for their proper reception upon arrival in the Colonies.

Persons having friends in any of the Colonies who may be willing to assist their Emigration, should request them to forward the money they will give for that purpose to the Honorary Secretary of this Society, or its Bankers, by Post-Office Orders or Bankers' Drafts, payable in London; and upon its receipt the Committee of the Society will apply it strictly to the purposes for which it is sent, and if necessary, as far as the Society's funds allow, will aid the families or persons to emigrate.

The "Bank of British North America," at all its Branches, and the Banks of "New South Wales," the "Union Bank of Australia," and the "Bank of New Zealand," at all of their respective branches, have also consented to receive and to transmit to the Society any payments made to them upon this behalf, or for the furtherance of the objects of the Society.

Offices—Algernon Chambers,
16, Northumberland Street,
Charing Cross, London, W.C.

The Council earnestly appeal for Donations and Subscriptions in aid of the Emigration of the Unemployed Poor.
