THE CANADIAN PHILATELIC HANDBOOKS.

No. 1.—The Stamps of British North America.

A descriptive priced catalogue of B. N. A. postage revenue, local, and telegraph stamps. It deals with 697 varieties, and is brought up to date of publication. Price, 25 cents, post-paid.

No. 2.—Canada and Her Stamp Collectors.

Its contents comprise a directory of about 1000 Canadian collectors, a brief history of stamp collecting in Canada, sketches of about twenty of Canada's leading collectors, dealers, etc., etc. Price, 25 cents, post-paid.

No. 3.—The Stamp Collector's Companion.

A book that should be in the hands of every dealer and collector. It contains definitions of the many philatelic terms which often mystify the young collector; a coinage table giving the relative value of the coinage of all countries in American currency; sundry short articles, hints, etc., make the book a very useful one. A purchaser writes: "It is invaluable to anyone interested in stamp collecting. It fills a niche in my case that has been causing me a great deal of trouble." Price, 25 cents, post-paid.

No. 4.—The Standard Handbook on Counterfeits.

This book is twice the size of my other handbooks. Each country is taken up alphabetically, and the distinctive points of difference between the forged and genuine stamps are given. It is of importance that the collector should guard against placing forgeries in his collection; and, at the price, no better safeguard can be had than this book. Price, 25 cents, post-paid.

— SPECIAL OFFER —

To anyone ordering the four books at one time I will send the same post-paid for 50 cents,—one-half the regular price.
