ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

CONSTANT READER:—"Social Life," published by us at 4s. or $1.00, gives correct forms of invitations and replies. We cannot frame exact answers to hypothetical questions; the publication above mentioned is explanatory of practical etiquette and the requirements of society in general.

A. B. C.:—White is appropriate for mourning wear. A cloth band is proper for a black felt hat instead of crape, and if a mourning band for the arm is used at all, it should be placed on the left arm.

LILLY:—A man is always introduced to a woman, the form generally used being, "Mrs. A., allow me to present my friend, Mr. B."

W.:—Distingué is pronounced dees-tang-gay.

A. D.:—Cat-tails may be gilded, bunched with dried ferns and grasses, and arranged under wall brackets; or they may be disposed to form a tripod, and a basket may be placed within to hold odds and ends.

SUBSCRIBER:—Plain black serge can be satisfactorily associated with dotted serge.

COUNTRY MAIDEN:—Your plaid material is fashionable, and red silk will trim it effectively. A widow has no card during the first year of mourning, but after that her christian name should be engraved upon her card, of course with the prefix "Mrs."

ALICE:—When a gentleman pays his first call it is permissible to ask him to repeat his visit; after that the request is unnecessary. If he wishes to call again, he will do so.
