

Members not to be paid. "28. The Board shall not allow or pay to its members any sum of money for acting in such capacity, with the exception of the amount of expenses which their attendance at the regular meetings of the Board may entail.

Secretary may be paid. 2. But the Board may appoint a Secretary-Treasurer from amongst its members, or otherwise, and may grant him reasonable remuneration for his services. 5

Interpretation. "29. The word "Institute" shall include all associations having for their object the advancement of the Arts and Manufactures of the Province. 10