Shitewood on Bridge

It's Blatantly Obvious

By Alfie Shitewood and Spank Smuart

actaully reads this. For all you care, and nobody would be any the wiser. But we still get paid to come up with some nonsense about our 'old pals' East, West, South, and who could forget North? What a waste of space. Maybe if someone at the newspaper could be bothered to write some decent articles, column just to fill up space. Anyway, on with the Bridge (like you care).

EAST RULES We always make East win. It might make our problems a bit easy, but too bad. So you can probably guess who is going to win today. Here's the

WHO PAYS?

All four go out for a meal. West has a shrimp cocktail to start, while all the Who are we kidding - nobody others just drank beer. All four had sirloin steaks, but North didn't have we could just write about our children, any mushrooms as they upset his bowel condition. North does, however, have a banana split for desert, and this really upsets South as he didn't do anything else which warrented a mention. The

Who should pay for the meal? North is vulnerable (due to that they wouldn't have to buy a syndicated bowel condition we mentioned earlier)

DAILY CRAPTOQUIPS - Here's how to work it: A. D. BAXTER is a LONGFELLOW

Or at least that's what we read in the ladies' washroom down at The Dick Pub. Anyway, this is a dumb 'crack the code' game that nobody ever does. So why am I wasting my time making it up? It beats writing news stories that never get read.

EVER HEARD A

SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1996 (For your personal daily horrorscope, call 1-506-447-3425. Fortunately, it won't cost you anything. But it won't tell you anything either. Swings and roundabouts, I suppose)
HAPPY BIRTHDAY! IN THE

NEXT YEAR OF YOUR LIFE: This will be the worst year of your life. Not only do you face financial ruin, FUCKED UP but any love interest that you might have will leave you. So you can forget about sex for the next few years - just get yourself a monkey to spank (if you know what I mean). While a business venture may look hopeful in its initial stages, that won't last. When I said financial ruin, I meant financial ruin. The only light at the end of the tunnel may come when you lose control of your car - make sure your medical nsurance is paid up!

ARIES (March 21-April 19): This is going to be a very good day for you. then again it might. Either way, it will all be over in 24 hours.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Being stubborn has always been the facet of your personality that really pisses people off. And that is why nobody likes you. Maybe you should try changing your birthday to alleviate matters.

GEMINI(May 21-June20): Even when you think things can't get any worse, they will. Shit happens. At least it isn't happening to me.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): How lucky do you think you are going to be when your star sign is named after a terminal illness? And that pretty much sums up what is going to happen to you on Saturday. Stay home and medicate. LEO (July23-August 22): Any illness that you might be suffering from is going to get worse. You thought that things were bad up to now, but multiply by about 50 to see how bad things are going to be. Sorry.

VIRGO (August 23-Sept. 22): Things are looking up. In fact, by the end of today, you will have to change your star sign (if you know what I mean). So you should probably pay a visit to your local drugstore and pick up some supplies for what promises to be a wild weekend. Give him/her/it one

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Why don't you weigh up the situation, and let things hang in the balance rather than taking the law into your own hands. SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): The only way that life can get any better is to hang around with some of those cool Pisces people. And avoid those depressing Cancer bastards - they'll always bring you down.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21):

I bet you would love me to tell you that your love life is going to pick up. Too bad. Instead, you should try your hand at gardening. Or maybe Home surgery. Either way, it will take your mind off other things. Like your love life,

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan 19): It must really suck having your birthday so close to Christmas. All those combined presents that never seem to er than anyone else's Christmas gifts. Life can be so cruel sometime.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18):

Whatever plans you have for today, change them. They weren't very good anyway, and you could have a lot more fun hanging about with some Virgos (assuming they went to the drugstore like I told them).

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): This is my sign, so you can be sure that nothing bad is going to happen to you. You will get everything that you want, and a little bit more. It is cool to be a Piscean.

Z How many words of more than four letters can you make from the letters shown here? Probably not too ERCHIE many, so let's keep word, each letter may only be used once. But if you can't work that out for yourself, you may as well just quit right now. Idiot. Anyway, the real catch is that every word has to contain the centre letter - pretty tricky, huh? There is a nine letter word 'hidden' away in there, but if you manage to find it, you probably shouldn't be reading this 'newspaper' anyway. Remember, no plurals and stuff like that, and no foreign words (like you'd know any). All words should be found in a dictionary - you know, the big book on the shelf next to the Bible that you never use.
