16th April/44		No serious accidents or injuries during this period. Health of the Unit has been average. The Victory Loan Parade was held through the City of Belleville by the personnel of this Station, and the various Service Units of the City of Belleville. The entire parade was under the command of Wing Commander Snetsinger, and the personnel of this Unit commanded by Flight Lieutenant McGuire. A Flight of airwomen and the Station Band from Trenton accompanied this Unit. The parade after the "march past" on Front Street assembled in the Market Square where the Victory Loan Plaque was officially presented. Several thousand gathered to watch the parade, but not as many as were expected which was due to the inclement weather.
