

CONTENTS.

7

CHAPTER IX.

ANGLICAN AUTHORITY FURTHER CONSIDERED.

1. The authority of the English Church not Catholic. — 2. The consequence, her teaching not Catholic. — 3. Her own admissions. — 4. An inquiry into Anglican inconsistency. — 5. The ultimate Catholic tribunal or standard

67

CHAPTER X.

AT WHAT PERIOD OF HER AUTHORITY IS ENGLAND TO BE TRUSTED ?

1. The reasonableness of this question. — 2. Is she to be trusted before or after the Reformation ? — 3. Is she to be trusted under Henry VIII., or under Edward VI., or under Mary, or under Elizabeth, or how ? — 4. Is she to be trusted as she speaks in her Prayer book, or as she speaks in opposition to its plain sense by the Queen's Court ? — 5. The necessary confusion and uncertainty under such a system

90

CHAPTER XI.

WHAT WAS THE LIVING, TEACHING AUTHORITY IN ENGLAND FOR EIGHT HUNDRED OR A THOUSAND YEARS BEFORE THE REFORMATION ?

1. On the principle that we are to hear the Church, to whom are we to listen from the time of Augustine to the time of Henry VIII. ? — 2. We are to hear a speaking Church, not dumb books. — 3. Wycliffe a heretic according to the faith of the Anglo-Saxon Church

97

CHAPTER XII.

WAS THE REFORMATION IN ENGLAND REALLY CONDUCTED ON THE PRINCIPLE OF SUBMISSION TO THE PRIMITIVE CATHOLIC CHURCH ?

1. A test of Mr. Palmer's principle of Reformation by "the authority of Catholic Tradition." — 2. The absurdity of his principle as applied to the facts of the English Reformation. — 3. What tradition is. — 4. Tradition, to have authority, must be submitted to and trusted. — 5. Origin and source of Tradition. — 6. Its perpetuity, as viewed by the Fathers. — 7. Applied to England. — 8. Not derogatory to God's Word

102