GOSSIP.

A well-known starting judge recently asserted that he would much rather start a whole afternoon's programme of professional races than one race for amateurs. "If you wish to lose your friends in short order," said he, "just go to the track or speedway with a lot of them and attempt to get them away in good shape in a matinee race." And there is a lot of truth in what he says. A starter has no way of controlling a field of amateur drivers, and if he insists in giving every one an equal chance, or if he gets disgusted and lets them go away to a ragged start, some of them will get mad. It makes little difference which course he takes, he will have less friends when it comes night than he had in the morning.

In view of the fact that a great deal of discussion has been indulged in as to how a four-in-hand team should be handled, the individual styles of such well-known whips as Morris Howlett, Aurel Batonyi and the Brothers Fownes, having been incidentally brought into the discussion, the challenge recently issued by Mr. John Thompson, one of the best known of English sportsmen, is likely to create considerable interest among coaching devotees on both sides of the Atlantic. Mr. Thompson believes that the Fownes Brothers, E. K., Arthur, Ernest and Charles, are the four best coaching drivers in the world, and his challenge is an offer to wager $2,500 that in a competition they can demonstrate themselves superior in that respect to any other four coaching drivers in the world, either French, English, American or any other nationality. Should the wager be accepted on the part of some quartette of expert drivers, an interesting exhibition of reinsmanship should result.
