APEIL 9, 1898.

FIVE - MINUTES SERMON.

Easter Sunday. EASTER DUTY.

"This is the day which the Lord hath made: let us be glad and rejoice therein." (Ps. sxvii. 24.) Why, I would ask you, my dear brethren, does the Church in the words of the Psalmist bid us rejoice and be glad on this day especially? Why should we experience any extraordinary spirit of joy and happiness on this day above all other days? The reason is plain, as you all know; it is the day of Resurrection, it is really and truly our Lord's Day, the Day that He has made ; the Day in which we are to place our hope for the future, since with the Resurrection of Christ have risen all our hopes. The thought of our own future resurrection ought to fill our minds with consolation, and with joy unlimited ; with the hope that we too shall participate in the glory and delight expressed by the Church in her liturgy of the day. We look about us, and behold all nature risen, as it were, and beautiful in her new life; the trees budding, the flowers blossoming, and Mother Earth covered with her new vesture of Truly, then, may the Psalmist green. Truly, then, may the Psalmist say: "Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea be moved and the fulness thereof ; the fields and all things that are in them shall be joyful " (Ps. xev. 11, 12). If we, too, would share in this joy and gladness it is necessary that we should make our life comformable, in so far as we can, to the spotless life of our risen The Resurrection of our Saviour. Saviour teaches us this great truth of priceless value, that if we would be truly happy we must rise from the death of sin to a new and holy life, to a life of Grace ; we must " put off the old man, which is corrupted according to the desire of error, and put on the new man, who according to God is created in justice, and holiness of truth " (Eph. iv. 22). That is why the Church teaches u that the best means of enjoying to the fullest extent the blessings of this day is by the reception of the Body of our risen Saviour, and so comes the ques tion to each one of us : Have I risen from the death of sin ? Have I made my Easter duty? If you rave not done so, then the full joy of Easter cannot be yours. Hasten, before the Easter season be past, to enter into the spirit of it by a good confession and lommunion. Thus only can you be really united to your risen Lord. you have celebrated Easter by the reception of Holy Communion, then joy and gladness is without measure ; it is true, it is pure, because fortified with the Sacrament of the day

This resurrection of ours must be true, it must be complete ; for just as the risen Saviour dies no more, nor does He suffer anything further, so ought we, when returned to the life of grace, when risen from the death of sin to favor with God, remain faithful in that pure and holy condition and die no more to the graces youchsafed us on this day. If we are dead to the world, to its vanities and deceitful pleasures. our Lord assures us that our resurrec tion will be the more certain and the more glorious.

Therefore, my dear brethren, 1 would earnestly entreat you to con-tinue in your purified condition, to persevere in your risen state, and so to enjoy not only to day, but at each

A Story of the Vatican.

creatures.

scriptions.

nenced.

Mail.

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS. THE HAMPSHIRE HILLS.

to him.

EUGENE FIELD, One alternoon many years ago two little brothers named Seth and Abner were playing in the orchard. They were not troubled with the heat of the August day, for a soft, cool wind came up from the river in the valley over yonder and fanned their red cheeks and played all kinds of pranks with their tangled curls. All about with their tangled curls. them was the hum of bees, the song of birds, the smell of clover, and he nerry music of the crickets. Their little dog Fido chased them through the high, waving grass, and rolled with them under the trees, and barked himself hoarse in his attempt to keep Wearied at pace with their laughter. ngth, they lay beneath the bellflower tree and looked off at the Hampshire bills, and wondered if the time ever would come when they should go out into the world beyond those hills and be great, noisy men. Fido did not understand it at all. He lolled in the grass, cooling his tongue on the clover loom, and puzzling his brain to know why his little masters were so quiet all at once.

"I wish I were a man," said Abner, ruefully. "I want to be somebody and do something. It is very hard to be a little bcy so long and to have no companions but little boys and girls, to see nothing but these same old trees and this same high grass, and to hear nothing but the same bird songs from one day to another." "That is true, "said Seth. "I, too, am very tired of being a little boy, and I long to go out into the world and be a man like my gran'pa or my father or my uncles. With nothing to look at ut those distant hills and the river in the valley, my eyes are wearied ; and I shall be very happy when I am big nough to leave this stupid place.

Had Fido understood their words he yould have chided them, for the littl log loved his home and had no though of any other pleasure than romping brough the orchard and p aying with his little masters all the day. But Fide did not understand them.

The clover bloom heard them with sadness. Had they but listened in turn they would have heard the clover saying foftly: "Stay with me while you may, little boys ; trample me with your merry feet ; let me feel the imprint of your curly heads and kiss the sunburn on your little cheeks. Love me while you may, for when you go If away you never will come back.

The bellflower tree heard them, too, and she waved her great, strong branches if she would caress the impatient little lads, and she whispered Do not think of leaving me : you are children, and you know nothing of the world beyond those distant hills. It is full of trouble and care and sorrow abide here in this quiet spot till you are prepared to meet the vexations of that outer world. We are for you, --we trees and grass and birds and bees and flowers. Abide with us, and learn the wisdom we teach.'

The cricket in the raspberry-hedge heard them, and she chirped, oh ! so sadly : "You will go out into the world and leave us and never think of us again till it is too late to return. Open your ears, little boys, and hear ny song of contentment." So spake the clover bloom and the eliflower-tree and the cricket ; and in main closely united to Him forever, so that having applied to yourself the words of to day's epistle, that "Hav-ing feasted not with the old leaven nor with the leaven of malice and wicked. ke manner the robin that nested in stood in Seth's presence and beckoned bitterness is gone from life "Who are you?" cried Seth? Reliability. The reliable man is a man of good "What strange power have you over judgment. He does not jump at con-clusions. He is not a frivolous man. me that the very sight of you chills my blood and stays the beating of my clusions. He is not a involute inter-He is thoughtful. He turns a subject tainable?

Most assuredly so.

The Sin of Idleness

ish, indolent way.

their hands.

Some young men grow up in a self

that they read are of a trashy, sensation

remunerative, it is better to h

They thus bring disgrace upon

THE POOR.

n the Gospel, that he did anything very scandalous. He was merely absorbed in his own pleasures, and for getful of Lazarus at his gate. But his

We do not discharge our duty to the poor by dropping a dime in the poor-box now or then. We must not assume apathy to the poor cost him Heaven.

bly clad till the end of his days.

by the alleged charitable.

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

heart?" Then the messenger threw aside his over in his mind and looks at it all nask, and Seth saw that he was Death. Seth made no outcry ; he know what he summons meant, and he was con. He is apt to be a very reticent man. H tent. But he sent for Abner. And when Abner came, Seth was stretched upon his bed, and there was a strange lock in his eyes and a flush passionate man; if so by nature, he has upon his checks, as though a fatal overcome it by grace. He is a sincere fever had laid hold on him. "You shall not die !" cried Abner, and he threw himself about his trustworthy man.

affairs in his hands. He is a bray But Seth bade Abner cease his outcry. "Sit here by my bedside and talk with me," said he, "and let us deduced from the sure basis of truth, speak of the Hampshire hills. A great wonder overcame Abner. With reverence he listened, and as he listened, a sweet peace seemed to steal out being good. Is such a quality at into his soul. "I am prepared for Death," said Seth, "and I will go with Death this be formed, of course, then its compon day. Let us talk of our childhood the parts may be moulded to the forma now, for, after all the battle with this great world, it is pleasant to think and a prize worth trying for speak of our boyhood among the Hampshire hills."

dampshire hills." "Say on, dear brother," said Abner. "I am thinking of an August day ong ago," said Seth, solemnly and softly. "It was so very long ago, and yet it seems only yesterday. We were in the orchard together, under the bell-dower-tree, and our little dog-" "Fido," said Abner, remembering it all, as the years came back . "Fido and you and I under the bellflower tree," said Seth. "How we had played, and how weary we were, and how cool the grass was, and how sweet was the fragrance of the flowers ! Can you remember it, brother?"

"Oa, yes," replied Abner, "and 1 remember how we lay among the clover and looked off at the distant nills and wondered of the world bevond.

'And amid our wonderings and longings," said Seth, "how the old bell flower-tree seemed to stretch her kind arms down to us as if she would hold us away from that world beyond the hills.

ornament to society has taken the first "And now I can remember that the step in vice through being indolent. clover whispered to us, and the cricket in the rasp-berry hedge sang to us of The young fellows who pass nearly all their waking hours upon the street, contentment," said Abner.

through a dread of shaking off the in-"The robin, too, carolled in the linertia which they have allowed to be den.

come a habit, cannot fail to fall into "It is very sweet to remember it temptations to which they will readily now," said Seth. "How blue and hazy the hills looked; how cool the vield. themselves and upon those who have, perhaps, worked hard to bring them breeze blew up from the river ; how like a silver lake the old pickerel pond up respectably, even if they have failed to give them the religious trainsweltered under the summer sun over beyond the pasture and broom-corn, ing they needed to prevent them from falling into the sins born and matured and how merry was the music of the birds and bees !"

in laziness. The youths who loaf So these old men, who had been little around the street corners indulging in boys together, talked of the August afternoon when with Fido they had vile conversation and longing to make beasts of themselves, cannot hope to romped in the orchard and rested be-neath the bellflower tree. And Seth's escape the snares of the devil. He is never idle though they may be. voice grew fainter, and his eyes were, DUIY OF PERSONAL WORK FOR oh ! so dim ; but to the very last he spoke of the dear old days and the orchard and the clover and the Hamp shire hills. And when Seth fell asleep forever, Abner kissed his brother's lips and knelt at the bedside and said the prayer his mother had taught him.

In the street without there was the noise of passing carts, the cries of trades people, and all the bustle ton, on Friday, Feb. 4. He insisted on the obligation of perof a great and busy city ; but, look sonal service to the poor, reminding his hearers of the words of Our Lord exaggerated. Non-Catholics are working in this field, which is the Catholics very own, and our neglect of it is a sad reproach to us.

It is not so hard to reach the boys, if one is in earnest about it. Chances abound for getting acquainted with the newsboys, for example. A pleasant smile, a friendly word, breaks the ice around. He is not a partial or onesided man. He sees through a thing. effectually.

Let the ladies of comparative leisure does not have to talk a great deal. engage to prepare some of those neg lected boys for the sacraments. Le is a moderate man not only in habits of body, but also of mind. He is not a them come to your own house for in of old times, like St. Elizabeth of Hungary, brought such children to her man, not a plotter or schemer. What he says may be relied on. He is a astle You feel safe with These boys, once instructed, become your property or the administration of sometimes, missionaries on their own account. Father Gasson mentioned one who, having received the sacra ments, brought forty-five of his com and he does not fear to maintain them. panions to their religious duties.

He is a good man, for no one can b In conclusion Father Gasson imthoroughly honest and truthful with ressed upon his hearers the fact that oliteness and sympathy are never thrown away upon the poor ; and gave It is them a very touching example of a young man brought to the sacraments not born-it is made. Character may be formed, of course, then its compon and a happy death, because the priest thought it worth while to hunt me tion. To gain a spotless reputation is ip, and always knocked on my doo efore coming in."-Boston Pilot.

Shakespeare an Irishman.

They have little that is useful to ccupy their minds or Not many years ago a Protestan They have no taste for lergyman essayed the herculean tash good reading, and the books or papers f proving that St. Patrick was a Bop ist. The ordinary reader will per al kind well calculated to destroy what haps think it a parallel absurdit little shreds of character remain in claim that Shakespeare was an Irish man. Yet a distinguished lecture lives without aims or objects. Idlenes leads to vice. It can always be avoid ecently addressed the National Literary Society of Dublin on "The Celtic Genius of Shakespeare ;" and, it must ed, and, even if work does not prove ployed than to leave one's self open to be said, made out a far stronger case evil temptations through a mind that for the contention that the greatest of is unoccupied by the performance of either mental or physical labor. Of English poet was a Celt than Ignatius Donnelly has yet made for the course there must be periods of rest Baconian authorship of Shakespeare after all toil, but what we object to is plays. The proverbially fine treatment long continued and unprofitable periods of idleness. women that characterizes the play was insisted on as being " most assur The man who is lazy from choice will usually drink to excess, and this edly not Saxon, but indubitably Cel-'and the conclusion of the whole practice we know leads to the commisstudy was that Shakespeare was "by sion of countless other crimes. Includblood, nature, sentiment and sympathy a Celt "-Ave Maria. ng the blackest in the calendar. Many a person who might have been an

Strength Has Returned.

Strength Has Returned. "My whole system was run down. I was so weak I could scarcely get around to do my work. I finally began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and after using five bottles I found that my strength had returned and my appetite was better. I now feel as strong as ever." MRS. KELLEY, 9 Wellington Avenue, Toronto, Oatario.

HOOD'S PILLS cure nausea, sick headache, ndigestion, biliousness. All druggists. 252. You Can't Tell.

You don't know when that cough will stop. The cough of consumption has just such a beginning. Take Scott's Emulsion now while the cough is easily managed.

while the cough is easily managed. If your children moan and are restless dur-ing sleep, coupled when awake with a loss of appetite, pale countenance, picking of the nose, etc., you may depend upon it that the primary cause of the trouble is worms Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator effect-ually removes these pests, at once relieving the little sufferers.

Bronchitis can be Cured,

Bronchitis can be Cured, By aiding medication with increased nutri-tion. The especial function which Maltine with Cod Liver Oil discharges in pulmonary diseases is to build up and strengthen, by providing a valuable nutritive, combined with the purest cod liver oil. The oil is ren-dered palatable, acceptable to the stomach, and of easy digastion. These merits place Maltine with Cod Liver Oil in the very front rank. It increases the solubility of starchy food so as to largely augment the nutritive matter available for renewing strength, muscle and tissue. None then suffering from bronchitis or cough should negleet this remedy-a food medicine and reconstructive of the greatest value. The "Mission of the Child of Mary to the Poor " was the subject of the con-ference given by the spiritual director, the Rev. Thomas I. Gasson, S. J., at the regular meeting of the Sodality at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Bos-

Educational.

$25-DOLLARS-$25 will pay your tuition in the Business Shorthand, Telegraph, or Penman-ship Department of the CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE, TORONTO. For the SPRING TERM.

ending June 80th next. Get particulars. Enter now. Write- W. H. SHAW, Cor. Yonge and Gerrard sts. PRINCIPAL

Spring Term Begins April 4th. BUSINESS College

STRATFORD, ONT. RFCOGNIZED thronghout Canada as the leading commercial school in Ontario. ENTER NOW. Write for special circulars. W. J. ELLIOTT, Principal.

GALT BUSINESS COLLEGE Elegant Announcement of this

Metropolitan Business College

Superior advantages offered for the cultivation of MUSIC, PAINTING, DRAWING and the CERAMIC ARTS.

A SSUMPTION COLLEGE.

A SSUTPTION COLLECH, Sandwich, Ont._____ The studies embrace the Classical and Com-mercial courses. Terms, including all ordinar-expenses, SI50 per snum. For full particular spply to REV. D. CUSHING, C. S. B.

GENTS. "THE BEAUTIFUL LIFE OF A Miss Willard." by her secretary and liter-ary executor, Anna A. Gordon : Introduction by Lady Henry Somerset; sells to everybody. Great ana. Prospectus, fitty cents. Books on time. Bradley-Garretson Company, Limited, Toronto.

Toronto. WANTED: FARMERS' SONS OR OTHER industrious persons of fair education to whom S90 amonth would be an inducement. I could also engage a few ladies at their own homes. T. H. Linscott, Toronto.

PLUMBING WORK In Operation, can be seen at our wareream Dundas Street . . .

CERAMIC ARTS. SPECIAL COURSE for pupils preparing cates, Matriculation, Commercial Diplomas, Steer ography and Type-writing. For particulars address. THE LADY SUPERIOR.

ailway World.

ered).

e from

part of real

to, Ont al.

gh,

1a,

ages. ly on ce of ta is rgely

le by ork.

AAAA

R

ICES

G CO.

.D. ontreal.

NAL.

Dealers the undernders for office up to the supply ny portion can be ob-he office of nd Canals, be attached name, the f residence further, an eent. of the ompany the ast be en-ilways and party ten-act for the tated in the

will be re-ose tenders ever, bind

NES. Secretary. s, vertisement rtment will 1015 2

london, hursday of their hall, James P. Secretary, ness, but with the unleavened bread of great world beyond those distant hills. Many years went by ; and at las sincerity and truth," you may in the end enter into the presence of Him

Seth and Abner grew to manhood, and the time was come when they were to whose resurrection has made this day one of joy and gladness for all His go into the world and be brave, strong men. Fido had been dead a long men. Fido had been dead a long time. They had made him a grave under the bellflower-tree, --yes, just where he had romped with the two little boys that August afternoon Fido

The Pope's private audiences have been reduced in number. The in-dividuals who have been accorded ay sleeping amid the humming of the bees and the perfume of the clover. But Seth and Abner did not think of this honor have been requested by the Fido now, nor did they give even a passing thought to any of their old Pontifical chamberlains to co operate in causing as little fatigue as possible to His Holiness. The Pope himself friends,-the beliflower tree, the clov er, the cricket, and the robin. Their hearts beat with exultation. They good-humoredly submits to the pre-Latterly a French Bishop, on his visit were men, and they were going be yond the hills to know and try the ad limita, on receiving notice of his audience, was requested not to protract world.

the same beyond a given number of minutes. On the morning of the recep-They were equipped for that struggle, not in a vain, frivolous way, tion the domestic prelate, warned the Bishop that he would give him a sigout as good and brave young men bould be. A gentle mother had o nal, when it would be time for him to selled them, a prudent father had adrequest the Apostolic Benediction and take his departure. The Bishop was vised them, and they had gathered from the sweet things of Nature much of that wisdom before which all knowlled to the throne-room and the audience edge is as nothing. So they were for-tified. They went beyond the hills The minutes quickly passed, and the domestic prelate at length gave the sig-nal for the Bishop to retire. His Lord-ship, however, thought he had not yet and came into the West. How great and busy was the world-how great and busy it was here in the West ! What a rush and noise and turmoil and seething and surging, and how keenly had a reasonable interview and paid no heed. The prelate, after a few minutes, repeated the signal, but perceiv-ing that his efforts were unavailing, did the brothers have to watch and struggle for vantage ground. Withwalked quietly to a side door and in a moment ceturned at the head of four al, they prospered ; the counsel of the mother, the advice of the father, the wisdom of the grass and flowers and trees, were much to them, and they chamberlains, who had with them two red poles. Fastening these to the sides prospered. Honor and riches came to them, and they were happy. But amid it all, how seldom they thought of the little home among the circling hills where they of the throne they calmly raised it and carried the Pope bodily from the reception room .- From the London Daily had learned the first sweet lessons of CHATS WITH YOUNG MEN Exercise is Necessary.

Regular and vigorous exercise in the gymnasium or the open air is as necessary for a man's health as food.

The Busy Man has Leisure.

The saying, "He who works hardes finds most leisure," is a true one, and the oft repeated statement, " If you want anything done ask the busiest man to do it." The men who have nothing to do are usually the men who can do nothing ; purposeless, untrained, flabby.

College Graduates Begging for Food and Shelter.

A college education will immensely increase a man's chances for success in life. But a college training will not keep that man from wreck and ruin who lacks principle, pluck and purthe four tho Ten per cent. the Bowery Relief Department of the New York Y. M. C. A. are college suit of clothes to a needy man. That is a temporary benefit. But you find him work, and so he may be comfort graduates.

Five Rules of Life.

First. If possible, be well and have a good appetite. If these conditions are yours the battle of life is already half won. Many soul and heart troubles arise really in the stomach, though it may seem strange to you. Second. Be busy. Fill the hours so full of useful and interesting work that there shall be no time for dwelling on your troubles, that the day shall dawn full of expectation, the night fall full of repose.

Third. Forgetyourself. You never will be happy if your thoughts con-stantly dwell upon yourself, your own perfections, your own short comings, what people think of you, and so on. Fourth. Expect little. Expect little of life, nor too much of your friends. New York and the source of the sou

Yonge St. Fire Hall,
Toronto, March 16, 1897.
Gentlemen, — I have used Dr. Chusé's Kidney Liver Pills for Bilionaness and Constipustion, and have proved them the best that I have ever used—will use nothing else as long as they are obtainable.—Remaining yours respectfully.among the circling inits where they inits where they is perfections, your own subtreaming, your, and soo on.
Fourth. Expect little. Expect little. Expect little of life, nor too much of your friends.
Fifth. Trust in God. Believe that God is, that He really knows what is best for you; believe this truly and the a similar line. The need cannot begirls in bur elf yoi Bosson, while complimenting the ladies of the sodality who are doing so well with their working girls' clubs, made a strong appeal for the boys who need charitable effort on a similar line. The need cannot be Himself in describing the Last Judg-ment, where the question of salvation of the greatest value. No family living in a bilious country should be without Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. A few doese taken now and then will keep the Liver active, cleanee the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter and prevent Ague. Mr. J. L. Price, Shoals, Martin Co., Ind., writes: "I have tried a box of Par-melee's Pills and find them the best melicine for Fever and Ague 1 have ever used." or perdition turns on such direct duty as feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, sheltering the homeless. He accepts such service to our fellow creaas if it were rendered to Himself, and resents the neglect of it as a lersonal neglect. It is not said of the rich man, Dives,

But his

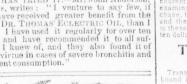

Do Not be Fooled Do Not be Fooled With the idea that any preparation your druggist may put up and try to sell you will purify your blood like Hood's Saraaparilla. This medicme is the result of years of study and experiment. It is prepared under the personal supervision of educated pharmacists who know the nature, quality and medicinal effect of all the ingredients used. Hood's Saraaparilla absolutely cures all forms of blood discase when other medicines fail to do any good. It is the World's great Spring Medicine and the One True Blood Purifier.

ad afflicted. We must not think, how v giving a little money to the poor with whom we may come in contact. Father of charity. The greatest good you can do for the poor boy or girl is to put them in a suit of clothest o a needy man. That is a temporary benefit. But norm possesses merit unknown to any other MEDI-CINE. There are cases of consumption so far ad-vanced that Bickle's Auti-Consumptive Syrup will not cure, but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, it is a specific which has never been known to fail. It promotes a free and easy expec-toration, thereby removing the plegan, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal. The languor so common at this season is due to impoverished blood. Hood's Sarsapa-rilla cures it by enriching the blood. HE HAS TRIED IT.-Mr. John Anderson, Kinloss, writes : "I venture to say few, if any, have received greater benefit from the use of DR. THOMAS ECLECTRIC OIL, than I have. I have used it regularly for over ten years, and have recommended it to all suf-farers I knew of, and they also found it of great virtue in cases of severe bronchitis and incipient consumption." The poor need bodily relief, help to get work, etc., but they also need sympathy. The Child of Mary orght o be peculiarly able to give them this. She should go among them, as Christ went among the poor of His day, suffering with them, so to speaknever talking down to them, nor nagging them. The poor have their feelings as the rich have, and don't like to be outraged in their self respect The poor need instruction. Not so

4

SMITH BROS. Banitary Plumbers and Heating Engineers. LONDON, ONT. Solo Agents for Peorless Water Heaters. Telephone 838 VERY LIBERAL OFFERS . . as as An Opportunity to . . .

Possess a Beautiful Family Bible ... at a Small Outlay

00 THE HOLY BIBLE

THE HOLY BIBLE.

vulgate. Neatly 2, and weighs be sent to any ad-larger ed tion for lit given on subsend remittances by money is sent the etter should it It is always better to order, but when cash overy case be register

THOMAS COFFEY, Catholic Record Office, - LONDON, ONT.

much can be done for the old people in this matter perhaps; but there is a missionary field among the boys and Purest and Best for Table and Dairy No adulteration. Never cakes.

