

Ulon is Strength.
BY THOMAS D'ARCY M'GEE.

A man whose corn was carried away
Before his eyes, and whose oats and hay
Were piled up into the landlord's cart
Looked towards his castle with sorrowful
Heart.

"You seem," said he, "so strong and grand,
Like a giant you overlook the land;
And a giant in stomach you sure must be,
That of all my crop can leave some to me."

Quoth another—"Of such weak words what end?
Have you any hope that the devil will mend,
Or the wolf will let the kite escape his maw,
Or a landlord yield his rights at law?"

"Let us go over to Rackrent Hall!
By two and three—it may befall,
As wisdom is found in the multitude,
Enough of us might do some good."

At first they went by two and three,
But Rackrent's lord they could not please;
And next they went in number a score,
But the case was even the same as before.

By fifties and hundreds they gathered then,
Resolute, patient, dogged men—
And the landlord owned that he thought there was
Some slight defect in the present laws.

Then a harony spoke—a country squire—
A nation struck at their lordly yoke—
"Was found the light could not be withheld,
And wisdom was found in the multitude!"

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

DUBLIN.
The Irish Times of Nov. 8th, says of the emigration from the port of Dublin: "It would seem as if, following the harvest, a winter emigration of Western peasantry was about to set in on an extensive scale. For some months past the exodus had almost ceased, only an occasional half dozen leaving within a week, but matters are now taking a different turn, and for the past fortnight or three weeks a distinct revival of the movement is apparent at the North Wall. As many as forty and fifty leave now in the six days, the emigrants consisting wholly of athletic young men and healthy girls, with occasionally a few families. The greater portion come from Mayo and Galway, Sligo and Leitrim also furnishing small contingents. For so far they are in every instance bound for the United States, sailing from Liverpool."

WICKLOW.
A preliminary meeting was held at Rathfriland, on Nov. 7th, for the establishment of a local branch of the Land League. Although it was meant to be the only prelude to a great county demonstration which is projected, and although it was held at brief notice under all possible disadvantages as to the weather, the meeting turned out to be a very remarkable gathering of the stalwart and substantial tenant-farmers of the district. The day was a dismal one. The green glens and lovely woodlands of the neighborhood were veiled all day in mists, which settled down into a steady rainfall. Nothing daunted by the weather, bands of music arrived from Wicklow and Roundwood, with banners. One of them had a portrait of Mr. Parnell, with the motto: "Parnell's chosen son" and "Parnell for ever" on the orange. Another was inscribed, "Down with the land-grabbers," and a third with the "Stars and Stripes." The meeting was held on the Square, and was characterized by strong feeling, moderate language, and thorough-going business in earnestness.

KING'S COUNTY.
At the Forlans Presentment Sessions, on Nov. 8th, Thomas Hackett, Esq., Castle Armstrong, Ballyvenny, a farmer and land agent, claimed £270 for hay and an out-office, burned by fire, alleged to have taken place recently, and under circumstances which rendered it impossible that it was accidental. As a motive for the act, Mr. Hackett swore that he was threatened for evicting a tenant, and for taking up a farm for which a tenant refused to pay the old rent. The latter said he often shot a better man than him. He also put a boy away from his employment, and was threatened. The cess payers allowed £205, of which £45, the value of the out-office, goes to the landlord, Percy Gough, Esq.

CORK.
The tenants on Miss Allworth's Capriagh property at Glanworth, on Nov. 6th, it being the day on which they were called on for the rent. They offered to pay Captain Smith, the agent, Griffith's valuation, but as he refused to accept it they left with the money in their pockets. The farmers on several properties in East Cork protest that the valuation is a sufficient rent.

On Nov. 9th, a number of men assembled at Ardennan, near Skull, and turned out a man named O'Mahony from a farm he occupied under a sheriff's assignment. The former tenant, named Cavelly, was reinstated.

PERMANAGLI.
A largely attended meeting, under the auspices of the Land League, was held on November 9th, at Belleek, County Fermanagh. Mr. Parnell, M. P., Mr. Dillon, M. P., and Mr. O'Kelly, M. P., and a number of priests, were present. A collision between the Orangemen and the supporters of the meeting was apprehended, and a large body of military and police were drafted into the town. The procession included a considerable number of horsemen, who wore orange and green scarves bearing the motto, "Justice to Ireland," "The land for the people." The meeting passed off in the most orderly manner. Mr. Jordan of Enniskillen, presided. Resolutions of the usual character were adopted. Mr. Parnell said they opened that day the Land League in the North of Ireland, and would show that the league was not a sectarian movement, but represented all creeds and classes. He felt that the day was not far distant when the Orange and Green would unite in it. The Ulster custom had been tried, and was found wanting. In good times it gave them some interest in their holdings, but in bad times their all was frittered away before the landlord began to suffer. Landlordism as a system must be cast away root and branch. They did not want to fix rents. They wanted to reduce them, and afterwards to abolish landlordism. They had possession of their holdings which were nine points of law, and ere long the law would give them the whole tenth. Mr. Dillon said, as a Catholic, he regretted that there were many bad landlords in the South and West, but he had the protestant farmers of Ulster he entrapped into the horrors of religious bigotry. Within two years every farmer there would be the owner of his land. The meeting was orderly.

KERRY.
A meeting of the Catholic clergy of the Listowel Deanery was specially held on November 10th, at Listowel, for the purpose of making arrangements for holding, at an early day, a public land meeting. Some strong opinions were generally expressed condemnatory of the action of the Government in regard to the forthcoming State prosecutions.

LIMERICK.
On November 7th, a land meeting, under the management of the Irish National Land League, was held at Newcastle. There was an immense number of people present, with bands and banners and the usual regalia. Contingents came from all the surrounding districts, and the town was decorated with evergreens and triumphal arches.

CLARE.
On Nov. 7th, a large and enthusiastic demonstration took place in Killaloe. The rain fell continuously from early morning, and played pitiless pranks with the flags and banners and the numerous arches of welcome which spanned the streets, but it did not daunt the men of Clare and Tipperary, of whom either, from assembling in their thousands. A leading feature in the demonstration was the large number of horsemen present. Several bands attended. The mottoes displayed were such as "The Land for the People," "Justice for All," "Give back our own."

TIPPERARY.
Mr. Parker, of Castle Lough, a Tipperary landlord and magistrate, who was attending a Presentment Sessions at Newport, on Monday, 9th, and who recently announced that he would let his land at Griffith's valuation, received a joyous welcome at the hands of the Tipperary farmers who met at Newport to promote the Land League. They remained outside the Sessions House, until Mr. Parker appeared, when they took him on their shoulders, chanted him through the place, and the local band of music to play "See the Conquering Hero," and gave him a thousand blessings on his departure for Castle Lough.

WATERFORD.
Mr. John O'Callaghan, hon. secretary to the Waterford branch of the Land League, and who was some months ago evicted from his farm at Newtown, for non-payment of rent, was reinstated in possession by force, on Nov. 4th. It appears that he held about 120 acres under Mr. Henry Paget Barron, Bart., and that, owing one and a half year's rent, was evicted. He then went to reside in Waterford city, and received a letter, apparently in the writing of the agent over the property, Mr. Butler, requesting him to journey that evening to Newtown as he wished to have a friendly conversation with him on the farm. Mr. O'Callaghan proceeded in the evening of that day as far as Kilmacshomas, and walked up to the farm of Newtown. He arrived at nightfall, and at the gate leading into the farmyard he was met by over 100 persons with blackened faces and wearing disguises, who seized him and carried him by force up to the farm-house, which they burst open, and reinstated him in possession, making him swear on his bended knees never to give up the farm, on doing which they unitedly swore that if he broke his word they would murder him. The affair created a great sensation in the district.

DOWN.
A rumor is prevalent in Newry that a large quantity of arms has recently been imported into the neighborhood, by the police knowing nothing of the occurrence.

DONEGAL.
On November 9th, after the Belleek meeting, Messrs. Parnell, O'Kelly and Dillon proceeded in a wagonette to Ballyshannon. They were met on the way by a vast torchlight procession led by a brass band. The horses were yoked from the wagonette, and a triumphal march began towards the town. When the party reached the hotel Mr. Parnell addressed the people, as did also Mr. Dillon and Mr. O'Kelly. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. On the following day Mr. Parnell addressed a large number in Ballyshannon. In the course of an earnest exhortation to the Orangemen to make common cause with their brethren in the west and south, he deprecated the attempts that were made to import religious dissensions into the country, and declared that from what he had seen of the people he is convinced they will never again listen to the evil council of men who, in the sacred name of religion, have sought to perpetuate discord. As regards the land agitation, he said the movement in which they were now engaged is founded on strict justice, and that nothing was more certain than the ultimate triumph of their cause.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple and powerful remedy, he has cured many cases of this insidious fever. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. SHEPARD, 145 Power Street, Rochester, N. Y.

It is said that he travels faster than cold, because you can't easily catch cold. If you do catch cold easily you can as easily cure it in its worst form if you use Hayward's Pectoral Balm, the popular throat and lung remedy. It speedily cures the most troublesome cough, always all irritation, discharges, tough phlegm, cures Asthma, Hoarseness and Bronchitis, and all diseases leading to Pulmonary Consumption.

It is his testimony of all men who have tried it that "Myrtle Navy" tobacco has the most delicate flavor of any tobacco in the market, and that it leaves none of the unpleasant effects in the mouth which most tobaccos do. The reason for this is the high and pure quality of the leaf, which is the finest known in Virginia, and the absence of all deleterious matter in the manufacture.

The world should be aroused to the deplorable condition of the females of our land! The feeble frame, the pale, bloodless cheeks, hollow eyes, nervous debility, and the various distressing forms of female weakness, are matters that every nation in our country should consider. All forms of Debility and Irregularities peculiar to the sex may be promptly remedied by Burdock Blood Bitters.

GALWAY.
On November 7th, at Robeen, near Hollymead, about eighteen miles from Tuam, a land meeting, consisting of an immense number of tenant farmers, was held under the auspices of the Irish National League, for the purpose, as the placard convening the meeting intimated, of "denouncing land grabbers and laying claims to just law." The platform was erected on a farm which was recently surrendered by the tenant for not getting a reduction in the rent, but which has since been taken by some farmers contrary to the rules of the League. Several contingents attended from the neighboring parishes. That from Inallinrobe comprised a large body of young men, headed by the towns, bare and carrying imitation pikes, marched in military order to the scene of the meeting. There was a Government note-taker present on the platform, who, previous to the taking of the chair, was closely watched. A considerable force of constabulary were drafted in from the neighboring stations, and were under arms within a short distance of the meeting. Their services, however, were not required.

MAYO.
On Nov. 7th, a large land meeting was held in Ballyhean, three miles from Castlebar. The day was inclement and wet from the morning. Other demonstrations were held at various places in Ballyhean, and this, together with the bad state of the weather, took greatly from the gathering. Still it was large and representative. A splendid banner was brought from Ballytubber, bearing a large contingent from that district. Bekarra and other districts were also represented.

SLIGO.
An imposing and important demonstration in furtherance of the land agitation, took place at Sooy, on Nov. 7th, the object of the meeting being to denounce the prosecution of the leaders of the Irish people by the British Government, and to denounce land grabbers. Sligo, Tairy, and all the surrounding districts sent contingents, accompanied by bands, all of whom wore green favors, together with the "Parnell" badge." The Cairty contingents carried a splendid banner, on the side of which was a picture of Mr. Parnell, and on the other an Irish harp, with the inscriptions "Cairty to the Rescue," "The Land for the People." Several other banners were carried, on which were inscribed the usual mottoes. The chair was taken by Mr. Gregory Parnell.

On November 7th, at Clifflon, a pleasant village about eleven miles from Sligo, and facing Donegal Bay, there was an immense, enthusiastic, and most orderly gathering in connection with the Land League—certainly one of the largest and most successful meetings ever held under similar auspices. The weather in the morning was wet, cheerless, and threatening, but fortunately for some time before the meeting took place and for the remainder of the day the elements were propitious. Large contingents were on the ground—a spacious field in the occupation of M. Monday, a short distance from the village.

An iron hut was erected at Mount-irwin, in the county Sligo, beside the residence of a man named Parnell P. Cayley, who has taken land contrary to the rules of the Land League. The hut will be occupied by four sub-constables. Cayley has been subjected to much annoyance, and is in a state of great isolation. He has made a charge in the Presentment Sessions for malicious injuries to his stock.

LEITRIM.
The Kilmore branch of the Land League, having adopted a resolution that all members of it should pay no rent over the Government valuation, the tenants on the different estates have acted on it, and Griffith's valuation has been accepted by the tenants on the late Mr. O'Brien's, Esq., estate on Sir Gilbert King's property attended at his residence, Charlestown, Drumna, and offered the Government valuation. It would not be accepted, and they left in a body without paying anything. Mr. J. Tyrrell, Esq., agent on the estate of the late Mr. O'Brien, Esq., brother to the junior member for Leitrim, has accepted the Government valuation on all the property at Ballyfermore, to pay rent unless the Government valuation was accepted.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandarin, yellow dock, with the juice of peach and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and most effective alternative medicine known or available to the public. The science of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula and all scrofulous humors, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Itch, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ring-worm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuritis, Female Weaknesses, and all Diseases of the Blood, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the food corruption which contaminates the blood and causes derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, promotes energy and strength, restores and preserves health, and induces new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial.

It is safe to experiment with the numerous low-priced mixtures of cheap materials, and without medicinal virtues, offered as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more deeply seated. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a medicine of such concentrated curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and most reliable blood-cleanser known. Physicians know its composition, and prescribe it. It has been widely used for forty years, and has won the unqualified confidence of millions who it has benefited.
